Rome, July 17.

O morrow Prince Radzeville, Ambaffador Extraordinary from the Crown of Poland makes his publick Entry, which he has so long deferred, because he pretended to some things, which would not be yielded to; and particularly, he demanded to be Treated with the Stile of Highness, which some have given him; It is believed, that after the Solemnity of lis publick Entry and Audience is over, he will begin to trink (freturning home, or at least, that he will retrench his Family, which being at present very large, p ts him to great expences. Notwithstanding there are so many Places void in the Colledge of Cardinal, there is not the least appearance of a Promot on, which has for several years been expected, not without impatience in some.

Milan, July 31. Though we are here in a perfect quiet, and that we have reason to promise our street, and that we have reason to promise our street, that the Peace of Italy will continue undifurbed, yet we see our Governor the Count de Meigar, employ himself with great care and dilugence, to put the places that are of any importance within his Government, into a good post re of Defence; the Officeis are called upon to have their Troops compleat; and Rec uits are sent hith r from

Spain

Venice, Aug. 3. The last Letters from Zant told us, that the Gallies of this State were there; that they had great quantities of Provisions, but that they wanted Money, which happened, for that the Supply that was sent from hence, had been retarded by some accident. The same Letters add that the Turks have 50 Gallies at Sea; and that several men of War of Barbary are joyned with them, Commanded all by the Captain Bassa, but that it was not known what their Design was. The last week the Emperors Envoye had a long Audience of the Senate.

Genoua Aug. 7. This State having given Orders to their Gallies that are at present 4 in number, on the Coast of Sicily, to oblige those of Tuscany, in case they meet them, to Salute them first; the Grand Duke thereupon has fent another Gally well armed from Leghorn, to joyn the other three that are abroad, that so they might be as strong as the Genoueles, of which this Senate having received Advice, the 5th instant in the Evening sailed from hence, by their Command, another Gally to joyn the four above mentioned: Some days fince arrived here from Marseilles Monsieur de Vivonne, Son to the Duke of that Name, in a Galiot of 30 Oars, he made a very short stay here, and went in search of the twelve French Gallies which its said he is to Command. It is reported that fifteen French men of War are fitting out at Thoulon. At Final arrived three days fince a great Gerouele Ship from Cadia, having 800 Joldiers on Board for the State of Milan.

Dantzick, Aug. 3. The Advices we have from Poland are to vari us, that we know not what credit to give to them, though after all, there is ground enough to believe that the Turks have not any defign to fall upon Poland this year. And indeed, the preparations of the Turks f r this Campagne, have not been fo great, as to give us cauf to dirk, that thy intend to draw more enemies upon them fives. From Moseo they write, that the young that was going to Marry, and that according to antient custom, several of the most Beautiful Ladies of that Countrey, had been brought before him in order to his making choice of one to be his Queen.

Vienna, Aug. 4. The Rebels in Hungary have divided themselves into several Parties; who commit great Insolencies; the Imperial Troops that are to make h ad against them, march towards Hungary.

Strasburg, Aug. 9. The Countenaics of People here are much chang d from what they were, for the continual R ports that were spread abroad; and which were strenghthened by the Advices that came from very good hands, of the Deligi s of the French upon this City, are now look'd upon by all, to have been without ground. We shall be glad we may have reason to continue of the same opinion; and that the coming of Monsieur de Louvoy into these parts, who we are told, is very fuddainly expected, may not again change the face which things feem now to have put on. In the m an time the Princes of the En pire, who are aggrieved by the Proceedings of the French, make loud Complaints to the Dyet at Ratisbonne, and not without rea on, seeing, as they complain, they are by piece meals deprived of their Possessions, amidst the security which they ought to expect from the Peace. On Saturday last happened a kind of Earthquake at Bafle, but with ut doing any great damage. The Baron de Monclar continues encamped with the Troops under his Command near Croon-Weissenburg, but intends to remove from thence, about the latter end of this month towards Haguenaw.

Strasburg, Aug. 12. The French Troops, confifing of 2500 Horse, and 10000 Foot, which were drawn together out of Burgundy, Suntgow, &c. and were already on their march towards the Lower AlJace, received Orders not far from Golmar, that 8000 of the Foot, and 2000 of the Horse, in uld march directly towards Metz, by the way of Markirken, and that the rest should continue encamped between Colmar and Schlestadt; The reason for thus changing the march of these Troops is kept secrete.
The Marcschal de Crequi is going from Nancy to wait upon the King at Standy, as Mon or de Monse elar intends likewise to do; to make Report to His
