

Cameret, and in the Presence of the Combined Fleets of France and Spain.

Any Comments of mine would fall far short of the Merit due to those gailant Officers, Seamen, and Marines employed upon this Service: It is but Justice to subjoin their Names and Qualities*, who have so nobly added an additional Lustre to His Majesty's Arms.

I have most sincerely to regret the Loss of the Killed and Wounded, but when compared with that of the Enemy, it is comparatively small. I cannot conclude without returning my warmest Thanks to Captains Poyntz and Gage for their judicious Arrangements of their Boats. I beg to mention that Captain Jervis, of His Majesty's Ship Robust, very handsomely sent his Barge and Pinnace on this Service; likewise Lieutenant Spencer, who placed His Majesty's Hired Cutter Telemachus in the Goulet, and prevented any Assistance, by Boats, the Enemy might have attempted.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.
C. BRISBANE.

INDENTURES OF APPRENTICESHIP OF POOR CHILDREN AND OTHERS, MADE UPON IMPROPER STAMPS, RENDERED VALID.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 9, 1801.

*H*IS Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, that, by a Clause in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, Cap. 22. it is enacted, for Remedy of the Inconvenience which has arisen and may arise to Masters and Mistresses of Apprentices, and also to Apprentices, in respect to Indentures of Apprenticeship made for the binding Poor Children and others, which have, through Mistake or Inadvertency, been executed upon Stamps of a different Denomination and Value than required by the several Acts relating to the Stamp Duties, and therefore are not valid or binding on any of the Parties thereto, that, upon Payment on or before the 31st Day of December 1801, of the FULL RATE OR DUTY payable on any such Indenture; or on the Production at this Office of any Indenture of Apprenticeship, where the same shall have been stamped with any Stamp of a higher Value, though of a different Denomination than is required by Law, and tendering the same to be stamped to the proper Officer at the said Office, every such Indenture shall be stamped without Payment of any Penalty whatever; and being so stamped with the proper Stamp (whether done during the Time mentioned therein, or after the Expiration thereof) shall thereupon be good and valid, and the Persons who have incurred any Penalty by such Neglect or Omission, are indemnified against the same, except only in such Cases where any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Secretary.

NEW STAMP DUTIES ON DEEDS, &c.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, July 3, 1801.

*I*N pursuance of Directions received from the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That, in order to prevent any Inconvenience to those Persons in the different Parts of the Kingdom, who shall not have been able to supply themselves with Vellum, Parchment, and Paper stamped according to an Act of Parliament, to which the Royal Assent was given Yesterday, owing to the Period for its Commencement taking place so soon after the passing thereof, there is a Clause in the said Act, empowering the Commissioners to cause such Instruments, viz. any Indenture, Lease, or other Deed, charged with an additional Duty of Three Shillings by an Act of the Thirty-seventh of the King, Cap. 90. as may, through Necessity, have
