Whitehall, January 9, 1802.

*W*Hereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an Anonymous Threatening Letter has been sent to Mr. John Carrick, of Welton, in the East Riding of York, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

Welton 1801

John Carrick Esq. I hear by remind you, of your late Conduct towards the Poor of Welton, last Winter, we have not forgotten the mallice you have had towards Mr. Lowthrop for his Charitable Contribution, and I am informed that he is going to make another in the same manner, and if you donot follow the Example of your good Neighbour you may depend upon it you will repent when too late; for we are determined to bark every tree in your Lawn & you will not be thoughtfull towards the poor. So I remain your Friend thoughtfull

December 3d

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. John Carrick, and FIFTY POUNDS by Mr. James Lowthrop, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.
