 Presteigne, Monday April 5.

Whitehall, February 27, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Monday the 15th Instant, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening, James Harrington, of Debden, in the County of Essex, Gamekeeper, was wilfully and maliciously shot at and wounded in his Head and Body by some Person or Persons in the Highway in the Parish of Thaxted, leading from thence to Debden, near Gosham's Farm;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired at and wounded the said Mr. Harrington,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by

Tho. Hall, of Saffron Walden.

Whitehall, February 27, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an Anonymous Threatening Letter (of which the following is a Copy,) has been received by Mr. Henry Holland, of Godalmin, Surrey:

Sir

I though it proper to inform you so shure as you fall the price of your work that your warehousfe shall be destruid by fire and you may depend on it the first uppertunity we have you shall loose your life for we think you are but one degre before govnor wall for he slog the men to deth and you trise to starve them so you derty raskel go hon and seek your hone ruan.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, March 2, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 15th Day of December last, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, as Two Boats, manned with the Crews of the Tartar and Lively Cutters, in the Service of the Customs, were out upon Duty in the Downs, and proceeding along Shore they discovered a Lugger, to which they gave Chace, and on their nearing her, the People on board the Lugger ordered the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats to keep off, and threatened to fire into them and sink and destroy them, and immediately fired one Musket; That notwithstanding this Refsistance the Crews of the Tartar's and Lively's Boat succeeded in boarding the said Lugger, and drove the Crew, consisting of Twenty-two Men, overboard, in effecting which, one of the Crew of the Tartar was wounded and another thrown overboard; that the said Lugger got aground on the Beach, near the Town of Deal, and she proved to be the Ned of Deal, laden with a large Quantity of smuggled Good, a great Part of which they seized and secured, and sent on board the Tartar Cutter; that in about an Hour afterwards: a: the Crews of the said Tartar's and Lively's Boats were endeavouring to heave the said Lugger off they were attacked by a great Number of Smugglers who came down upon the Beach armed with Musket, within Half Pistol-Shot of them, and kept up a constant Fire of Musketry, which the Crew of the Tartar's and Lively's Boats returned for some Time, when finding it impossible to get the Lugger off and being overpowered by superior Numbers, they quitted her, the Smugglers on the Beach still continuing to fire upon them until they got out of Sight; that in the Course of this Attack Two of the Crew of the Lively's Boat were wounded, one of them dangerously; that some Time after this the Smugglers rescued and carried off the said Lugger, and the same has not since been heard of;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders who shall discover hi or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction

By Order of the Commissioner,

H. Hutson, pro Secretary.

Whitehall, March 2, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 17th Day of December last, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, as Mr. James Ireland,
