

rothy Mill, at Arlingham, in the County of Gloucester, was maliciously set on fire by some Person or Persons unknown, whereby the same was totally destroyed, and that on the same, or following Night, Part of the Sea Bank or Wall, in a Field called Horsecroft Field, in the said Parish of Arlingham, belonging to her was unlawfully and maliciously cut down by some Person or Persons unknown, whereby a valuable Tract of Land of several Hundred Acres, was in Danger of being overflown and greatly damaged;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Felonies and Outrages, or either of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of such Persons (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Dog Kennel,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Dame Dorothy Mill, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, of the setting fire to the said Dog Kennel, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE.

March 25, 1802.

HIS Majesty, from a Consideration of the many and very essential Advantages to be derived from the Establishment of an Institution for the Purpose of affording a regular Military Education to those who may from early Life be intended for the Military Profession, and who by this Means may be grounded in Science previous to their attaining the Age that enables them, consistently with His Majesty's Regulations, to hold Commissions in the Army, having been pleased to establish an Institution under the Title of THE ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE, and to appoint Commissioners for the Controul, Direction, and Management of all Affairs belonging thereto, and having directed that, until the intended College shall be erected, a Part of the Junior Department thereof, upon a limited Scale, shall be formed at Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks; the Commissioners for the Affairs of the said Royal Military College do hereby give public Notice, that a commodious House and Premises have been taken and are now nearly ready for the Reception of One Hundred Gentlemen Cadets, who are to be formed into a Company, and to be called the First Company of the Junior Department.

For the Information of those whom it may concern, the following are the leading Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the said Department:

The Cadets are to be received upon Three different Establishments, viz.

Thirty, the Sons of Officers who have died or been maimed in His Majesty's Service:

These are to receive their Education, Board, and Clothing, free from Expence.

Twenty, the Sons of Officers actually in His Majesty's Service:

These are to pay Forty Pounds per Annum each, for which they are to receive their Education, Board, and Clothing.

Thirty, the Sons of Noblemen and Gentlemen, and Twenty, the Cadets of the East India Company's Service:

These are to pay Ninety Guineas per Annum each, for which they are to receive their Education, Board, and Clothing.

Linen is not included.

No Cadet to be admitted who is under Thirteen or above Fifteen Years of Age, or who has any mental or bodily Defect which may disqualify him for Military Service: he is to produce a satisfactory Certificate of the Time of his Birth.

Every Candidate for Admission is to be well grounded in a Knowledge of Grammar and common Arithmetic; he is also to write a good legible Hand.

The Qualifications of each Candidate will be enquired into by the Governor; and examined by a Collegiate Board.

The Cadets will be formed into a Military Body, and be instructed in Languages, and the Military Sciences and Duties, by Professors and Masters of approved Abilities. The Cadets of the East India Company will likewise be instructed in the Oriental Languages.

Public Examinations will be held for the Purpose of ascertaining the Progress of Improvement; and no Cadet will be recommended from the College for a Commission until he has undergone a public Examination, and has received a Certificate as to his Sufficiency.

No Cadet can remain longer than Four Years at the College.

The Health and Morals of the Cadets will be strictly attended to, and Habits of Temperance and Economy strongly inculcated.

Applications to be addressed to the Governor of the Royal Military College, under Cover to the Right Honourable the Secretary at War, War-Office.

East India-House, March 30, 1802.
