

Whitehall, May 25, 1802.

The King has been pleased to appoint Joseph Hunt, Esq; to the Office of Clerk of the Deliveries of the Ordnance of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Room of Thomas Baillie, Esq; resigned.

Commissions in the First West York Regiment of Militia, signed by His Majesty. Dated May 13, 1802.

Thomas Butterfield, Gent. to be Adjutant, vice Captain W. Graves, resigned.

St. James's, May 25, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects the Mayor and Burgeses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg leave, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Affection, to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Termination of that long and arduous Contest, on the Event of which depended our Religion, our Laws, and the very Existence of our glorious Constitution.

With Pride do we contemplate the many brilliant Achievements of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which will render your Majesty's Reign the Boast and Glory of future Ages, and which at length have enabled your Majesty to put a successful Termination to the Calamities of War.

To the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, seconded by the unshaken Loyalty, and unceasing Exertions of a free and grateful People, do we attribute the Extinction of that Principle of Anarchy which at one Period threatened the Destruction of that venerable Constitution which has for Ages been the Boast of Britons and the Admiration of the World.

Conscious of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, we shall not cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Almighty long to preserve your Majesty to fill in Glory, Happiness, and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the greatest Blessings upon an affectionate and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventeenth Day of May, in the Forty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Joshua Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to the United Kingdom.

When we consider the unexampled Difficulties which we have encountered, and the imminent Dangers with which we have so long been threatened, we feel the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude to your Majesty for the Adoption of those wise and prudent Measures which have so admirably preserved the internal Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions, and which have ultimately secured to us, unviolated and unimpaired, our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties.

To these excellent Measures, and to the gallant Exploits of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, which have added such distinguished Lustre to the British Name, and on which we shall ever reflect with Pride and Exultation, do we attribute the Termination of the Calamities of War, and the happy Restoration of external Peace and Security.

That the Blessings we now enjoy may be of long Continuance is our fervent Prayer; but should it ever unhappily be necessary again to resort to Arms in Defence of your Majesty's Crown, and the Support of our just and dearest Rights, we have the fullest Confidence that the same Wisdom and Firmness will appear in your Majesty's Councils, the same unexampled Valour in your Fleets and Armies, and the same Loyalty, Attachment, and Affection in all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, as were so eminently conspicuous during the long and arduous Conflict from which we have just been delivered.

That the Almighty may long preserve your Majesty to reign in Peace and Happiness over a free, loyal, and grateful People, is the most ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by the Right Honorable the Chancellor of the Exchequer and Joshua Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

Admiralty-Office, April 24, 1802.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old-Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of May next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

Evan Nepean.

Admiralty-Office, May 17, 1802.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned may apply, by Letter to Mr. William Pearce,
