

of War, and the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace to your Majesty's Empire.

We most earnestly pray that the Wisdom and Talents of your Majesty's Councils, and the Zeal, Skill, and Valour which directed the late Military Operations, may, under Divine Providence, effectually combine to render your Majesty's Power respected and revered by all Nations; and have the happy Effect of continuing to your Majesty's Subjects the Blessings of social Order and Peace, now so happily restored to Europe.

We beg to embrace this Opportunity of expressing our unalterable Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and our zealous and ardent Wish for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign.

In Testimony of the above, we, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed this Twenty-ninth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Mr. Jefferys, M. P. for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your antient and loyal City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, are happy in the Opportunity of approaching your Majesty's Throne on this Occasion, and of joining in the universal Joy diffused over your Dominions at the Conclusion of a long and expensive War, and the Restoration of Peace.

We have admired with Gratitude the wise Selection of your Commanders both by Sea and Land, the great and glorious Exertions of your Fleets and Armies, which have brought about this happy Event, and which, we hope, will be signalized by the Prosperity of our National Commerce, and crowned with the Overflowings of Plenty.

We are very thankful for the Preservation of our civil and religious Liberties; and join in our hearty Prayers to the great Disposer of all Events, that this Peace, so long wished for, may be solid and permanent, that your Majesty may experience the Blessing of good Health, and many Years to enjoy it, and your Reign continue long and glorious over a free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-seventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Chief Steward, and Major Symonds, M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, to approach your Royal Presence with our sincere and ardent Congratulations on the Termination of a most dangerous and bloody Warfare, and the happy Return of the inestimable Blessings of Peace.

Already, Sir, do we feel the Benefits attached to this most desirable Event; we have seen that (under Providence) Plenty has attended on the Steps of Peace; our Commerce, we trust, will increase more and more, our Manufactures flourish, and, under your Majesty's auspicious Patronage, the useful Arts will revive and be encouraged.

To your Majesty's paternal Care and Anxiety for the Welfare of your faithful Subjects do we owe this happy Change. Accept, most gracious Sovereign, our warmest Acknowledgments for it; and may the God of Peace continue long to protect and preserve your Majesty to the anxious Wishes and Prayers of a loyal, grateful, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolsey, in the said City, the Eighteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

[Presented by Samuel Woodcock, Esq; Mayor, His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, Recorder, Sir Edward Jéynes, Knt. Alderman, John Wilton, Esq; Sheriff, and Henry Howard, Esq; M. P.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Wells, beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet our most respectful Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace to your Majesty's Dominions; and we most sincerely pray for the long Continuance of a Blessing which we are persuaded it is the first Wish of your Majesty's Heart to preserve to your faithful Subjects.

But should the Tranquillity which we now enjoy be ever again disturbed by any unprovoked Aggression from whatever Quarter, the just and deep Sense of Gratitude which we feel for the Benefits which we derive from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government will re-animate that Energy, Resolution, and unshaken Constancy in Defence of the just Rights and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown which has been so recently displayed; and we fully trust that the Exertions of a zealous and faithful People will ever, under Divine Providence, effectually maintain the ancient Honor of your Majesty's Kingdoms against the Ambition of any foreign Foe, and protect that glorious and invaluable Constitution, under which we have so long flourished, against the restless Machinations of any domestic Enemies.

We most humbly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts, and over the Persons of a loyal and affectionate People.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of this ancient City, have cheerfully sustained those Burthens which we found necessary for the Support of your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and the dearest
