St. James's, June 9, 1802.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Pelham, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Queensferry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Borough of Queensferry, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have put a Period to the burdensome and expensive War, in which not only these Realms, but almost all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils; that Industry; and (under your Royal Auspices and Example,) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity, may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Queensferry, this 8th Day of April One thousand eight hundred and two Years. The Seal of the Burgh being also hereunto affixed.

[Transmitted by Sir John Henderson, Baronet.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Borough of Culrofs, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our humble, but heartfelt Tribute of Gratulation and Thankfulness, upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, whereby your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness have finally terminated the burdensome and expensive War, in which not only these Realms, but all other Parts of the civilized World have been so long involved.

That the salutary Spirit of Peace may continue to pervade and inspire your Councils; that Industry, and (under your Royal Auspices and Example,) the due and meritorious Cultivation of all the Arts which tend to benefit or adorn Humanity, may ever distinguish the Character, and constitute the peculiar Felicity of your Subjects, and that your Majesty may long reign in Happiness over a free, a loyal, and an united People, is our earnest and ardent Prayer.
