THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Sarqubar, in Name of all the Inhabitants of that Burgh, beg Leave with all Duty and Respect to present to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations upon the Conclusion of the War, and our most grateful Thanks for restoring to your People the Blessings of Peace.

We are fully convinced, that in procuring to us this great Benefit, your Majesty has consulted at once the Honour and Prosperity of your Empire, and that your Majesty's Ministers, in treating with the Enemy, have obtained the very best Terms, which, under the existing Circumstances, could reasonably be expected, and we applaud the Prudence and Humanity of your Majesty's Counsels, in putting an End to a Contest, which could not have been continued longer with any certain Advantage to your Majesty's Dominions. But, while we thus offer your Majesty our Congratulations and
