St. James's, June 24, 1802.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the County of Kincardine, in North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Kincardine, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our Congratulations on the successful Termination of the late arduous Contest, in which this Nation was compelled to engage for the Preservation of its political Existence, and the Security of its Religion, Liberty, and Laws.

We cannot sufficiently express our Gratitude and Thanks for the paternal Care and Attention manifested by your Majesty in watching over and securing to your People all these invaluable Blessings. The Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, aided by Divine Providence, have been enabled to oppose with Success, a powerful Combination of foreign Enemies, assisted, we are sorry to say, by domestic Traitors, and to conclude, by an honorable Peace, a War glorious to this Nation.

It is our most earnest Wish and fervent Prayer, that the same Almighty Power, which has been pleased to protect these Kingdoms so remarkably in the late War, will long grant your Majesty to reign in Peace over us, undisturbed by Foes from Abroad or Faction at Home, the happy Sovereign and Father of a free, an independent, and a loyal People.

Signed by our Appointment, in our Name and Presence, by Alexander Burnett, of Strachan, Esquire, Advocate, Sheriff Depute of said County, our Preses, at Stonehaven, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

M. Burnett, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Alderney assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the States of the Island of Alderney assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations on the Return of Peace.

Situated as we are, within a few Miles of the Enemy's Coast, we have experienced, during the Whole of a Nine Year's War, the most undoubted Proofs of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to our Defence. The Protection that we have received from the Mother Country has been great and effective. During the late arduous Contest the Inhabitants of this little Island have been called upon for, and have shewn more Energy and Vigour than in any preceding Period, yet severe as these Exertions may have been, they shall be renewed with equal Spirit the Instant they are required for the Support of your Majesty's Dignity and the Safety of our native Land.

To the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils we owe our present tranquil State, and to the watchful Care of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief of your Majesty's Army, who has ever lent a most gracious Ear to our Wishes, we are indebted for that Security, which, even in the midst of Alarms, has caused this Island to enjoy a well-grounded Confidence in its Means of Defence.

Whilst, with every Sentiment of Loyalty and Gratitude, we beseech your Majesty to accept our most grateful Thanks for having put an End to the Calamities of War, we cannot but mention the uncommon Skill, Zeal, and Intrepidity with which the Officers of your Navy, sent off this Coast for its Security, have performed that Service.

We devoutly pray the Almighty Giver of all good Gifts to shower down on your Majesty His most precious Favours, and to grant to your Majesty a long, happy, and prosperous Reign.

Peter Le Mesurier, Governor and Commander in Chief.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchelsea.

SIRE,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Winchelsea, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgments for restoring to your People the invaluable Blessing of Peace.

Though we greatly lament those calamitous Events which have taken place on the extensive Theatre of the present War, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we contemplate, that those wild and anarchical Designs have been frustrated, which every where threatened both the Throne and the Altar, and that a Contest which involved in it the dearest Interests of Society, has come to a happy, and we hope solid, Termination. It is to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, under Providence, that we are indebted for carrying us through the unprecedented Difficulties in which we have been engaged, and calling into animated Exertion the Powers and Patriotism of the Nation. Great in Arts as well as Arms they will now turn their Attention to cultivating the Blessings of Peace, and enlarging the Wealth and Resources of your Majesty's United Kingdom;—united not only in territorial Arrangement, but in the most ardent and pious Wishes, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

Signed at the Guildhall of the ancient Town of Winchelsea, this Third Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, humbly beg your Majesty's Acceptance of our most sincere Congratulations on the Accomplishment of your Majesty's Endeavours for restoring Peace to your Dominions.

In attaining this happy Event your Majesty has demonstrated true Greatness of Mind in shewing Moderation in the Tide of Success obtained by the Valour of your Fleets and Armies.

May your Majesty long reign over a grateful and loyal People, and with them enjoy the Blessings of Peace.

George Churchill, Mayor

[Presented by the Honorable Cropley Ashley, one of the Representatives of the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient Borough of Inverness, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and that happy Constitution under which we live, which has been preserved and supported by your Majesty's paternal Care, beg Leave to approach the Throne with grateful Hearts, and Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness in alleviating the Burdens of your People, and increasing their Happiness and Comforts by restoring to them the Blessings of Peace as soon as it could be done consistent with the Honor and Safety of your Crown, the Preservation of our invaluable Constitution, and the Maintenance of that System so wisely formed for the Enjoyment of the Religion, the Laws, and Liberties of your People.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Termination of the War, in which your Majesty was unavoidably and necessarily engaged, and on the Wisdom, Energy, and Firmness of your Councils; on the unrivalled Bravery and able Conduct of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and the Loyalty and Fidelity of your Subjects at Home, so eminently displayed during the Course of it, all which, under the Favour of Divine Providence, have contributed to the Repose of Europe, and the Peace, Happiness, and Prosperity of your Majesty's Empire.

We earnestly pray, that Almighty God may preserve your Health, increase your Happiness, and long continue your Majesty's Reign, and that at a very late Period of Life, you may enjoy the Satisfaction arising from reigning over a grateful, loyal, and affectionate People, undisturbed by foreign Enemies or domestic Faction.

Signed by Appointment and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council of Inverness, this Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and two Years.

John Mackintosh, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and with the most ardent Sentiments of Allegiance, Gratitude, and Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the Blessings of Peace, now given to the United Kingdoms, over which the Divine Goodness has placed your Majesty as a Blessing to a happy and free People.

When we contemplate the Nature of the War from which we are now relieved, the unexampled Difficulties which attended its Progress, and the great Object of Preservation it had in View; the inviolate Purity of our sacred Constitution, (the Envy and Admiration of the World,) our Gratitude is unbounded to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, who has enabled your Majesty to close this arduous Contest with the proud Pre-eminence of your victorious Navy, and which also leaves a Lulstre on the British Soldier, equal in Glory, and in Fame.

Your Majesty's loyal Corporation of Newport renew, at this eventful Moment, their most ardent and fervent Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and for every Blessing which your paternal Bosom can receive, from the Prosperity and Happiness of a free, grateful, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Paisley, request to express our most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our Tribute of Gratitude for your Majesty's Acquiescence in restoring to the Nation the inestimable Blessings of Peace: and while we have with Pleasure remarked the Efforts of your Majesty's Subjects in the Defence of the Country, it affords us the more heartfelt Satisfaction to be able to assure your Majesty, that in no Quarter of the Kingdom have your Majesty's Views and Wishes been more strenuously seconded than in the Town of Paisley; and it is our most earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may live long to enjoy the Thanks and Blessings of your People, and that your Happiness and that of your Subjects may be undisturbed by Foes from Abroad, or by Traitors at Home.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council.

Walter Robertson, Chief Magistrate.

17th May 1802.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the ancient Burgh of Haddington, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts impressed by the deepest Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty for the late Exercise of your Royal Prerogative in the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty of Peace with France, Spain, and the Batavian Republic.

Feeling, as we did, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, the Misery and Distress consequent upon such extended and protracted Hostilities, combined with the severe Pressure of Scarcity with which these Realms were lately afflicted, though at the same Time admiring the Patience and Fortitude with which a brave and loyal Nation bore up against such aggravated Calamities, we could not view the late joyful Event, without feeling the liveliest Sentiments of Gratitude towards your Majesty as well as to those able and upright Ministers through whose Auspices an Event so desirable has been finally brought to so happy a Conclusion.

*We trust that the British Isles now happily united into one great Empire, may long continue under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty to enjoy the Blessings of Peace alike undisturbed by foreign Foes and domestic Faction, and that sensible of the distinguished Privileges we enjoy as a Nation, it may be our earnest Wish and constant Endeavour to preserve these Privileges sacred and inviolate, and transmit them unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Town-Council, in Common-Council assembled.
By James Roughead, Provost.
29th May 1802.

[Presented by the Honorable Thomas Maitland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulation on the final Success of your Majesty's Efforts for putting a Period to the Calamities of War.

Engaged in a Contest, not for Glory or Acquisition of Territory, but for the Blessings of established Government, the Independance of your Crown, and the very Existence of Religion and social Order in Europe; your Majesty has been not less conspicuous for the Wisdom and Energy of your Councils, than for your ardent Desire, whensoever these great Objects might appear to be secured, to stop the Effusion of Blood, and restore to your People the Blessings of Peace. We rejoice that your Majesty's Exertions, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, have been crowned with a favourable Issue; and, while the heroic Bravery of your Fleets and Armies has, under your Majesty's Exertions, been the Instrument of preserving the civilized World from the Dangers with which it was menaced, your Majesty has been no less successful in finally accomplishing the great Work of a safe and honorable Peace; and thus gratifying the first Wish of your Heart, to secure the permanent Interests of your Empire, and the Happiness and Tranquillity of your People. We acknowledge, with heartfelt Gratitude to the Almighty, the signal Protection, which, in the Course of this awful Struggle, your Majesty has experienced from the desperate Attempts of the Enemies of our excellent Constitution, the Existence and Preservation of which is so closely interwoven with the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the happy Establishment of your illustrious Family on the Throne of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our unremitting Endeavours to impress on the Minds of the Youth entrusted to our Care, a Sense of the Blessings they enjoy under the wise and auspicious Administration, which, by your Majesty's gracious Appointment, presides over this Part of the United Empire, and to inculcate the Principles of Loyalty and Attachment to the British Constitution, as the best Security for our effectual Attainment of the great End of our Institution, the Advancement of sound Learning, and of the salutary Influence of Morality and true Religion.

*W*Hereas it has been represented to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that, on Sunday the 6th Day of June instant, as William Woodard and Five other Boatmen, in the Service of the Customs, belonging to the Six-Oared Boat under the Command of Mr. Simon Bassall, Sitter, were out upon Duty on the Cliff at Southwold, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, they discovered a Lug-Sail Vessel and a Lug-Sail Boat (marked on the Stern Fly of Rye) within her, Sailing to the Northward, close to the Shore, and pursuing the same along the Shore as far as Easton Cliff, they were there met by Nine stout Sailors, one of whom appeared to be the Master, all armed with Muskets and Cutlasses; that the Officers saw them load their Muskets as they approached, and, upon their coming up, they told the said Officers that they had Goods and did not mean to lose them, and desired the said Officers to turn back as far as the Hedge, otherwise they would fire upon them; that the said Officers were thereupon obliged to retreat, and, after being detained and guarded by the said Sailors for a considerable Time, they were then compelled to go to a Public House at South Cove, where they were likewise confined and guarded by the said armed Sailors until Seven o'Clock in the Evening, during which Time the Whole of the Goods were, as it is supposed, carted off from the Shore and carried up the Country;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover any One or more of his Accomplices, so that any One or more of the said Offenders may be apprehended for the said Offence.
