

berty, invites the Four Quarters of the Globe to participate with her the Blessings and the Arts of Peace.

To your Majesty, in a peculiar Degree, belong the Gratulations of a beneficent Heart on the Prospects now opened to our View. Your faithful and loyal Subjects thus contemplate in the Happiness of their Sovereign, the Cause and the Fruit of their own Prosperity and Peace.

Untridge, Mayor.

Rob. Currie and Rich. Griffith, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with their sincere and ardent Congratulations on the Event of a general Peace.

The Circumstances which have attended a desolating and widely-extended War, afflicting in its Progress, and painful on Retrospection, have yet afforded to your Majesty's faithful Subjects the consolatory View of a great Nation firmly resisting the revolutionary Storm; and finally, under Favour of Providence, reposing in Security and Peace.

With those Blessings, the Fruit of wise and vigorous Councils, happily directed to that End, aided by the active Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life and happy Reign, we associate the Permanence of our invaluable Constitution, and the commercial Prosperity of these Realms.

R. W. Wynne, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of Dunbar, deeply impressed with Sentiments of Veneration and steady Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, crave Permission to approach the Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity to your Majesty's Dominions.

While, on the one Hand, we contemplate with Gratitude and Delight the Spirit and Determination which uniformly animated your Majesty's Councils, and which were, so successfully aided by the unprecedented Exertions of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies during the late arduous Contest in which we were engaged, so on the other, we cannot refrain from laying at your Majesty's Feet our humble Sense of the Firmness, Moderation, and Wisdom of those Measures which, through the Blessing of God and your Majesty's paternal Goodness, have led to a Restoration of Peace.

That the same Providence which has hitherto been your Preserver may continue to give to your Majesty a long and happy Reign, and may secure to your Majesty the Possession of the Confidence and Affection of a virtuous and loyal People, is the most earnest and humble Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

At Dunbar this Fourth of July One thousand eight hundred and two.

Chr. Middlemast, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of North Berwick, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity.

We rejoice that the arduous Contest in which this Country has been engaged in Defence of our Religion, our Laws and Independence, has been, by the Blessing of God, brought to a Conclusion; and we contemplate with Gratitude and Delight, that intrepid Bravery which has, on every Occasion, so eminently distinguished your Majesty's Fleets and Armies.

We assure your Majesty, that, whatever Exertions or Sacrifices we have been called to make during the War, we are ready to renew them with the same Spirit, should the Dignity and Honor of your Majesty, and the Security of the Empire, call for such an Exertion.

We trust, however, that such an Event is far distant; and we pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and peaceful, and that our Constitution, which is at once the Wonder, Terror, and Delight of distant Nations, may continue to bless our Children's Children.

Signed in Name and by Authority of the Council, this Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two Years.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Consul-General and Factory of Lisbon, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on the happy Event of a General Peace.

Residing, as we do, at a Distance from the Seat of your Majesty's Government, we do not the less feel its benign Influence; and the Solicitude which was expressed by your Majesty's Ministers, at a recent Period of Alarm, for the Security of our Property, with the judicious Measures suggested and pursued by them for its Preservation, have impressed us with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude. Our Hearts are still in our native Country; and our Inclinations, therefore, not less than our Duty, impelling us to take the deepest Interest in every Circumstance that can contribute to its Prosperity and Happiness. We trust, that it will not be deemed presumptuous in us to say, that we yield to none of our fellow Subjects in Sentiments of Respectful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and of Veneration for your Royal Authority.
