

Persons to whom the said late Mr. Barwise stood indebted at the Time of his Decease, are requested to send in an Account of their respective Claims, with the Nature of their Securities (if any they have) for the same, in order to the same being liquidated and settled.

NANCY BARWISE, Widow and Administratrix of the late Thomas Barwise.

ALL Persons who are in any Manner indebted to the Estate and Effects of Mr. James Mincur, late Cook to the Marquis of Salisbury, deceased, are requested to pay the same to Thomas Stevenson, Esq; Hatfield, Herts; and all Persons to whom the said James Mincur stood legally indebted at his Decease, are desired to send an Account of their Claims to the said Thomas Stevenson, or Mr. Dowding, Excise-Office, London, in order that they may be put in a State of Liquidation.

ALL Persons who have any Demands on the Estate and Effects of the late Mr. D. M. Keele, of the City of New-Sarum, deceased, are desired to send them in to Mr. C. M. Keele, Post-Office, Salisbury, in order that they may be adjusted and discharged; and all Persons who stand indebted to the Estate and Effects of the said Mr. D. M. Keele, are desired to pay the same to Mr. C. M. Keele, one of the Executors.

IN pursuance of a Resolution entered into by the Fellowship of Carmen, London, at a General Meeting, holden at Guildhall the 5th of November 1802, the Wardens of the said Fellowship do hereby give Notice to the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, and the Public in general, that on account of the Number of Carts robbed by Gangs of desperate Villains in and about the City, every Person who shall in future employ any of the Members of the Fellowship to cart any Goods or Merchandise that cannot be delivered before Sun-set, is required to send a Person with the Cart to protect the Goods and Property therein (it being impossible for the Driver of a Cart to protect the Goods and manage his Horses properly); the Members of the Fellowship will, therefore, not be answerable for the Loss thereof after this Notice.
