

and of Ingratitude to your Majesty, were we to withhold the just Tribute of Thanksgiving for so many Instances of Deliverance from Danger to which the Person of your Majesty has been exposed, and which Divine Providence has, in Mercy, averted from this Nation.

And we pray that the same Almighty Power may continue to grant to your Majesty the utmost Enjoyment of those public and private Virtues, which, for the Good of your People, your Majesty so eminently possesses; and that the Period may be far distant when your Majesty may be called to close a Reign, glorious, virtuous, and happy.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the City of Glasgow, most humbly approach your Throne with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Escape which your Majesty has made from the late wicked and diabolical Conspiracy which was formed against your Life and Government. We have peculiar Satisfaction in reflecting, that, through the Whole of your benign and auspicious Reign, we have had Cause to adore the Wisdom and Goodness of Almighty God in protecting your sacred Person alike from the Attacks of the Infanc, and the Daggers of Traitors and Assassins.

That your Majesty and your Descendants, to the latest Ages, may continue to dispense to an affectionate People the Blessings which we have enjoyed under your mild and parental Government, is our most earnest and fervent Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said City, in the Name and Presence, and by Appointment, of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the said City, in Council assembled, at Glasgow, the Fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three Years, by Lau. Craigie, Provost.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late dangerous Conspiracy, aimed against the sacred Person of your Majesty, and the Government and Constitution of the Country.

Impressed as we are with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and excellent Government, directed at all Times to the Maintenance and Support of every Measure essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects, we reflect with no less Astonishment than Horror that Persons should be found who could for a Moment entertain Designs so hostile to their Sovereign and their Country.

As faithful and loyal Subjects, affectionately attached to our King and Constitution, we cannot but admire the Wisdom and Justice of the Law, and of your Majesty's Councils, in having made such wicked and dangerous Traitors the Instruments of public Example and Determent to others; but as all human Means may fall short of defeating the Machinations of designing Men, when resolutely and impiously bent on Mischief, we devoutly implore that the same watchful Hand of the Almighty, which has so often, and so signally, preserved your Majesty amidst Dangers equally alarming and threatening, may continue its Protection and Care over a Life so intimately connected with the dearest Rights and Interests, and Happiness of us all. And under the same kind Providence may this and every other Country under your Majesty's Dominion be for ever effectually defended against those vile Principles, and their attendant Calamities, which its Enemies have been plotting, and insidiously endeavouring, to introduce, to the Subversion of our present happy Establishment.

Given under our Common-Seal this Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Francis Burton and John Atkins Wright, Esqrs. Representatives for the City of Oxford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations of our Countrymen for the happy Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person from the late treasonable Conspiracy.

We earnestly and humbly hope that Providence will mercifully continue its tutelary Care over your Majesty's Life and Health, and with them confirm in your Royal Breast the like Disposition, Resolution, and Activity for the Maintenance of our Constitution, civil and religious, as have so long secured the Applause, and rivetted the affectionate Attachment, of a loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common-Seal this Fourth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your antient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in Common-Council assembled, ever eager to evince our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the Escape of your Majesty from a vile and horrid Conspiracy.

We greatly lament that at this Period there should be found any of our Countrymen so wanting