

plary Punishment inflicted on the Ringleaders of it will effectually operate to prevent any future Attempt of so atrocious a Nature; and that your Majesty will continue long, very long, to reign over your free and happy People.

Given under our Common-Seal at our Guildhall, this Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by John Harrison, Esq; M. P. for Thetford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Worshipful the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common-Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, being truly sensible of the many Blessings which we enjoy under the paternal Government of your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, that, by the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Council, aided by Divine Providence, the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies which so lately threatened to undermine the Constitution have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempts to assassinate your Royal Person have been defeated.

In viewing with Indignation and Abhorrence the traitorous Machinations of wicked Conspirators, we cannot but feel an additional Impulse of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and of Reverence and Attachment to our most excellent Constitution.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened, and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unshaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said City, this Tenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

Navy-Office, March 5, 1803.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday the 24th March 1803, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, they will put up to Sale at their Office in Somerset-Place, the Hulls of the following Ships and Vessels, together with the Masts, Yards, Furniture, and Stores as per Inventory, viz.

Overyffel, 1226 Tons, Copper-bottomed, lying at Chatham.

Tisphone, 425 Tons, Copper-bottomed and fastened, and Copper Braces and Pintles, lying at Sheerness.
