

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution, from the Machinations of designing Traitors.

We most humbly return Thanks to the Almighty for the Mercy vouchsafed to us by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects; and we most devoutly implore a Continuance of Safety and Protection to your Royal Person and Family, on which the Welfare of these Kingdoms so much depends.

Given under our Common-Seal this Twenty-eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three. Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by Major-General Grosvenor]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, unite in the general Voice of National Joy and Congratulation at your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the malignant Designs of the late traitorous Conspiracy levelled against the Safety of your Royal Person, and intended to subvert our invaluable Constitution. We contemplate with equal Indignation and Horror Attempts of such atrocious Enormity, and return the most fervent Thanks to that overruling Providence, which influenced and directed your Majesty's Councils to the Detection of so foul a Treason. May that same Guardian Providence still continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Life; and may you long reign the King, the Friend, and the Father of a free, loyal, and united People.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said City the Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir Roger Kerrison, Mayor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Chester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the Machinations of designing Traitors, whose sole Aim was the Destruction of our happy Constitution, Religion, and Laws.

We humbly return Thanks for the Mercy vouchsafed in the Discovery of one of the most detestable Plots that could be devised, and by the Preservation of a Life so inestimably dear to your Majesty's Subjects; and we earnestly implore the Almighty to continue his Care and Protection over your Royal

Person and Family, on which the Welfare and Happiness of the Empire at large so materially depend.

Robert Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by Major-General Grosvenor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave most heartily to congratulate your Majesty, on your signal and providential Escape from the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy, which aimed at the Destruction of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and the Subversion, by Force, of our free, happy, and inestimable Constitution.

We cannot possibly contemplate the public Conduct and private Virtues of your Majesty, without feeling the utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Design against a Life, endeared to us by the Experience of the many Blessings we have pre-eminently enjoyed during the Reign of a Sovereign, whose Government has been marked by the greatest Mildness, and constant Attention to the public Welfare; and we are confident that those wicked and traitorous Machinations have justly excited the utmost Indignation, and their happy and timely Discovery and Defeat, have diffused the greatest Joy through every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

For ourselves, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government, and to the Constitution, as by Law established; and to express our ardent Wishes that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, and in future be undisturbed by any Conspiracies or Attempts against your Majesty and our excellent Constitution.

[Presented by Henry Protheroe, jun. Esq; one of the Sheriffs, attended by the Right Honorable Charles Bragge, and Evan Baillie, Esq; Representatives for the City in Parliament.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave, at this Time, humbly to approach your sacred Person, under a deep Sense of the great Importance of your Majesty's valuable Life to the Happiness and Prosperity of these your Kingdoms, and to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the late Detection and Disappointment of one of the most detestable Plots which the Wickedness of infatuated and misguided Individuals could have conspired to execute; a Conspiracy that, while it afforded lamentable and additional Proofs of the horrid Principles with which these Men were actuated, was equally destructive of all Civil and Religious Liberty.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, permit us humbly to assure your Majesty of the Continuance of our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and