

that we are determined to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, firm and unchanged, the happy Constitution of these Kingdoms.

That your Majesty's precious and invaluable Life may long, very long, be preserved as a signal Blessing to your People and Kingdoms, and that all your Subjects may learn to imitate that illustrious Example both of public and private Virtue so conspicuously set before them by your Majesty, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and by their Appointment, and the Common City Seal hereto affixed at Aberdeen, the Twenty-eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, by Ja. Hadden, Provost.

[Presented by James Farquhar, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave humbly to present to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations upon the timely and providential Discovery and Detection of the late wicked and detestable Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and upon the Facility as well as Certainty with which, by the Vigilance and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers, and the able and upright Administration of Justice in the Execution of the Laws, the nefarious Plans and Purposes of infatuated and desperate Individuals can be frustrated, and they themselves consigned to ignominious and merited Punishment.

Whatever has a Tendency to subvert our established Laws, and to introduce Anarchy, whereby your Majesty's precious Life might be endangered, and the Blessings of Peace and social Order interrupted, we ever did and ever will hold in Detestation and Abhorrence.

Permit us, Sire, on this Occasion to renew and repeat our Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our inviolable Attachment to your august Family, and to that inestimable Constitution and Form of Government under which we have the Happiness to live.

Given under our Common-Seal the Fourth Day of March, in the Forty-third Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Hartley, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir William Milner, Bart. and the Honorable Laurence Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, beg Leave to approach the Throne of your Majesty, with our humble, but sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's recent most fortunate Escape from an atrocious and desperate Conspiracy; we contemplate, with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, the Enormity of the Design as well as the Circumstances of aggravated and unexampled Wickedness that marked its projected Execution; we truly regret that there should be found, among those who daily partake of the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, Persons sufficiently depraved to imagine and concert so execrable an Attempt; and in common with all your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, we unite in offering up our grateful Thanks to the Divine Providence who has defeated and brought to light those atrocious Designs which had for their Object to involve, with the Destruction of a beloved Sovereign, the Subversion of our Laws, the Overthrow of our Liberties, and the utter Annihilation of our happy Constitution.

That the sacred Person of your Majesty may ever be preserved both from the Attacks of open Enemies, and the secret Machinations of Traitors, that, secure in the Affections of your People, you may long remain the Guardian and Protector of their Laws and Liberties, and continue to exhibit a bright and illustrious Example of public and private Virtue, is the ardent and unceasing Prayer of the loyal Corporation of this ancient and honorable City.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council-Chamber, this Seventh Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Sir Richard Gamon, Bart. and Sir H. P. S. Mildmay, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the recent atrocious and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your most sacred Person and illustrious Family.

We contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation a Design pregnant with such extensive Mischief, and which aimed at the Subversion of our most excellent Constitution, and therewith the Laws, Liberties, and Happiness which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Reign.

At the same Time we acknowledge, with the most profound Gratitude, the merciful Interposition of Almighty God in having thus signally frustrated such wicked and unnatural Designs, and in having protected a Life endeared to us by the paternal Care and Affection, and by the anxious Interest and Concern, which your Majesty has invariably manifested for the Prosperity and Happiness of your People.

Animated with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Loyalty, and of our sincere Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our determined
