

and Family; and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late atrocious and diabolical Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Life and Government; to the mild and virtuous Influence of which we owe so many inestimable Blessings, and for the Preservation of which we shall ever be found ready zealously to contend against all your Majesty's Enemies.

Deeply sensible of the unceasing and paternal Solicitude of your Majesty for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, inviolably attached to our Constitution which we have had for so many Ages such just Cause to venerate; we view the late nefarious Attempt on both with indignant Detestation; and while we lament the Depravity that produced such enormous Guilt, we rejoice in the reasonable Detection of it, in the sober Triumph of impartial Justice, and in the prompt and due Execution of the Law.

Your Majesty, enthroned in the Hearts of a brave and free People, has nothing to apprehend from open Violence. And may that Providence who has hitherto manifested to your Majesty and the United Kingdom a peculiar Grace and Favour of Protection, be still your Safeguard and Succour; and when, after a long and prosperous Reign, it shall please Him to call you to your high Reward, may your Majesty's august Family continue to rule this great and flourishing Empire with new Acquisitions of Glory to the latest Posterity.

Signed on Behalf of the Freeholders,

Rob. De La Cour, High Sheriff of the County of Cork.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts full of the sincerest Gratitude to God, and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on the late providential Detection and Overthrow of the Designs of those wicked and insatuated Traitors, who, conspiring with the Enemies of our Constitution and Government, sought the utter Destruction of both without even sparing your Majesty's most sacred and invaluable Life.

Whilst we join in the general Voice of our Fellow-Subjects in declaring our utter Abhorrence of all such traitorous and detestable Proceedings, we cannot but applaud the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty's Councils in detecting and bringing the Authors of them to exemplary Punishment, which, we trust, through Divine Providence, will be the Means not only of frustrating the present Hopes and Designs of our Enemies, and preventing the future Attempts of those who seek to disturb the Tranquillity of our Country, and to destroy our happy Constitution and Liberties, but of establishing more firmly, if possible, your Majesty's Throne and Government in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and prosperous People.

Permit us, Sire, to add our Prayers to the great Sovereign of the Universe, that a Life so dear to us as that of your Majesty may long be preserved; and that the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy in the wise Administration of our Laws, and the Exercise of our Liberties, may, under the Protection of your Royal House, be transmitted unimpaired to the latest Posterity.

Given under the Common-Seal of the said Borough this Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

W. Servant, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of affectionate Regard to your Majesty for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, and sensible of the invaluable Benefits we derive from our excellent Constitution, we beheld with Horror and Detestation the base and nefarious Plan for involving in one common Destruction the Objects of our dearest Interest, the Life of our Gracious Sovereign, and the Stability of our Constitution.

Anxious for the Welfare and Security of our Country, which is most closely connected with your Majesty's personal Safety, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity of renewing our Expressions of sincere Attachment and ardent Affection to your Majesty's Person; and we hope that the People of these Realms, living under your Majesty's parental Care, may long possess the Comforts and Blessings they have hitherto enjoyed.

Signed in Presence of and by the Appointment of the Meeting, James Clerk, Preses.
Edinburgh, March 15, 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT us, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, to unite with a free and grateful People in the most heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's late signal Escape from a daring and most atrocious Conspiracy, levelled against your Majesty's sacred Life and our invaluable Constitution; and do declare that we view with Horror and Detestation the diabolical Machinations that were lately so wickedly and deliberately planned to overwhelm the whole Nation in Ruin and Destruction.

May the powerful Hand of the Almighty, which has guided your Majesty securely through Circum-
