

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday October 18. to Thursday October 21. 1680.

Naples, Sept. 24.

Notwithstanding all the care our Viceroy takes to suppress the Banditi, their number encreas'd, so that this Kingdom is greatly infested with them. Two Companies of Foot, newly raised at Otranto, are come hither, which with others are designed for the State of Milan.

Warsaw, Septemb. 25 We are at present very quiet in these parts, and according to all appearance are like to continue so. It was indeed the general discourse for several months past, that this Crown was going to enter into a War in Conjunction with the Moscovites against the Turks, and there was then ground enough for it considering the Negotiations that were on foot for the making a League Offensive and Defensive between this Crown and the Czar of Moscow; but at present the Dispositions seem very much alter'd, and are become very averse to the War, occasioned by a belief that the Moscovites would not be sincere in it, but that they would make their own Advantages at our Expence, as well as by the backwardness of the Princes (our King send his Ambassadors to) to give their Assistance for the carrying on of the War.

Genova, Octob. 9. The third Instant arrived here the Palestine, Captain Salmon, the Exchange Captain Marin, from Scandaroon, the Unity, Captain Kecher and the Lucitania, Captain Warner from Zant, and the ... Captain Groves, from Naples.

Mad id, Octob. 4. The Bankers here have been agreed with to remit 500000 Crowns to Flanders, of which 100000 are to be paid to the Prince of Parma before the end of December, and the rest in the four following Months. The Galeons will part from Cadiz the latter end of this Month, or the middle of the next at farthest. The Count d'Estrees continuing in the West Indies, does somewhat disturb this Court, not knowing what his design may be. Since the latter end of August we have had here such abundance of Rain, accompanied with Thunder, Lightning, and violent Storms of Wind, that it is not to be expressed, and particularly this day sevendnight it rained so violently for three or four hours, that the Water run down the Streets as a River, and did much harm, several persons being drowned, and a House of Pleasure, belonging to the Countess of Ognare, being in a manner swept away by the violence of the Current. From Gallicia they write of some differences they had with the Portuguese.

Stockholme, Octob. 9. The States of this Kingdom are to meet here the 11th Instant, after which the Queen will make her publick Entry into this place. We hear no more of the Alliance which was said to be Treating between this Crown and France. Mr. Warwick, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of England, is arrived here.

Lintz, Oct. 14. The 9th Instant the Commissioners appointed for the Trial of the Count of Zinzendorf, late President of the Chamber of the Revenues, met at the House of Count Nostitz, and there pronounced the Sentence they had concluded against the said Count Zinzendorf, which was, That for several Misdemeanors, Breach of Trust, and evil Administration, he should pay to the Emperor 197000 Gilders, That he be deprived of all publick employments, and that he retire to some place, such as the Emperor shall assign, and live privately there. The Emperor purposes to remain here this Winter, but the Empress Dowager and the Queen of Poland will part the 22 Instant for Vienna. The Prince of Baden, who was sent by the Emperor to the Electors and other Princes of the Empire, to confer with them concerning the present State of affairs, is returned, and has made his Report to his Imperial Majesty. We are told that a considerable Sum of money is sent to Hungary for the Payment of the Imperial Troops, which for want of it began to be somewhat disorderly.

Ratisbonne, Oct. 14. The Duke of Wurtemberg has, by a Memorial, acquainted the States assembled here, That he has been Summoned by the Parliament of Besancon to do Homage to the French King, for his Principality of Mompelgart, and that in default thereof he is threatened with Military execution, and therefore desires that the Emperor and the Dyet will take care to protect him, or else that they will not take it amiss if he be forced, to prevent the Ruine of his Countrey, to Comply with what the French require of him. We do not yet hear that the Dyet has taken any resolution in a matter of this importance.

Posdam, Oct. 9. The Prince of Orange arrived here yesterday: The Elector went out with a great Train of Coaches a League from this place to meet his Highness, and walk'd a little way on foot to receive him; after which they both went into the Electors Caleche, the Prince having the Hand. The Regiment of Horse Guards marched to a Town called Brandenburg, seven Leagues from hence, to meet his Highness, and attend him hither, where the Guards du Corps of Horse and Foot were drawn up to receive him. There are come with his Highness two Comtes of Nassau, the Comte de Solmes, Monsieur Overkerke, Monsieur Benting, and Monsieur Ginkell, Son to the Heer d'Amersongen, who is Envoy from the States in this Court, with several Officers of the Army. How long his Highness intends to stay, is not yet known, but on the 11th Instant he will be entertained by the Electores at a Countrey-House which he has a League from this place, down the River, called Capot; and the next day it's said, his Highness intends to go to Berlin to visit the Electoral Princes, who continue there since her being brought to bed. This day all the publick Ministers have made their Compliments to his Highness, upon his arrival here.

Hamburg,