

delivoy that Happiness which all have experienced under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government. Our Trust and Confidence however is, that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the Projectors of so foul a Dred will convince all Ranks of that Protection which our happy Establishment affords against every Attempt to disturb the public Tranquillity; and the Disaffected, that Treason, or an Attempt to commit it, can never escape without Detection and Punishment.

That your Majesty may long enjoy that Quiet and Happiness, which it has been the Business of your Life to afford all your Subjects, is our most earnest Desire and Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting at Naim, the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.
Hugh Rose, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Buckingham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Buckingham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Preservation of your Majesty's Royal Person from the wicked and traitorous Attempts of atrocious and desperate Conspirators, whose Plots were directed to the Destruction of your Royal Person and Government, and the Overthrow of our happy Constitution.

We implore the Almighty to grant his Divine Protection to your Majesty and your illustrious Family; and to continue to us the Blessings of our excellent Constitution unimpaired and uninterrupted by the Machinations of any foreign Enemy, or the traitorous Attempts of domestic Foes.

[Presented by Lord Proby and the Right Honorable Thomas Grenville, Representatives for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Borough of Rothefay, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Detection and Failure of the late treasonable and dangerous Conspiracy formed against your sacred Person, and intended to overturn the Government and Constitution.

Blessed with equal Laws, and such an admirable Form of Government, as has enabled this Kingdom to rank so high among the Nations of Europe, we reflect with Horror on the atrocious and frantic Attempt of those Traitors, who could conceive the Perpetration of an Act of Criminality so great; and our Indignation at their diabolical Machinations is augmented when we reflect on the many amiable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, and the benign Influence of your Majesty's Administration of the great and eminent Powers entrusted to you by our well-regulated and happy Constitution, which has been constantly and uniformly directed to the Welfare of your People, and the Honor of the Kingdom.

May that good Providence, which has heretofore interposed to preserve your Majesty's valuable Life against the Machinations of wicked and deluded Persons, continue to long protect it as a public Blessing, is the ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Rothefay.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Chief Resident Magistrate.

Arch. Moore.

Council-Chamber, Rothefay,
March 11, 1803.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING,

The Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Ancient Borough of Inverness.

SIRE,

WITH the warmest Feelings of Gratitude for the Goodness of Providence in bestowing on this Empire the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, we eagerly embrace the Opportunity of joining the united Voice of all your Majesty's loyal and well-disposed Subjects, in offering our sincere and affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty, on the fortunate Discovery and Prevention of the wicked and traitorous Designs of a few desperate and unprincipled Men, the most despicable of your People, against our beloved Sovereign, and the Happiness, Liberty, and Security we are blessed with under his mild and paternal Government.

We earnestly pray Almighty God long to preserve the Life and Health of our King, to shield him with His Protection, and to defend him and our invaluable Constitution from the evil Purposes and Machinations of foreign or domestic Enemy.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council of Inverness.

John Mackintosh, Provost.

Town-Hall, Inverness, March 14, 1803.

[Presented by Lord Pelham.]

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, approach your Royal Presence, to express our utter Abhorrence of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our most cordial Congratulations on its providential Detection and Overthrow.

May the awful Punishment which was deservedly inflicted upon its Authors, together with a just Sense of your Majesty's distinguished Virtues, and of the invaluable Privileges which we and our Fellow-Subjects have so long enjoyed, contribute to the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and to the future Quiet of the Empire.

Permit us, on this Occasion, to renew our Assurances of affectionate Regard to your illustrious