

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Cuesday March 29, to Saturday April 2, 1803.

St. James's, March 30, 1803. HE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleafed to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the underligned Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Wellminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your Majelly's late happy Escape from a traitorous and detellable Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government, as established by the Verdict of an English Jury in a British Court of criminal Judicature.

As we do most fincerely feel, so it is our most earnest Wish to convey to your Majesty, our deep and heartfelt Execration at this flagitious Defign; and we cannot in fronger Terms express our Sense of it than by declaring, that no Language is capable of sufficiently describing our utter Abhorrence of so wicked and abominable an Attempt.

Heartily concurring with our Fellow-Subjects in Reprobation of this base Conspiracy, and Exultation at its Failure, we do most ardently wish to your Majesty a long and happy Life.

[Presented by the Honorable Charles James Fox, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the faid Čity.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Gloucester, animated with unseigned Regard for your Majesty's facred Person and Government, pre-June respectfully to offer our Congratulations on the providential Deliverance from the late wicked, traitorous, and malignant Conspiracy.

Permit us, Sire, to avail ourselves of this Occafion to repeat the high Sense we entertain of your Majesty's auspicious, just, and benignant Sway, which requires not the additional Lustre it receives from the political Confusion to which, unhappily, neighbouring States have been exposed.

Earnestly praying that your Majesty's Government may ever proceed undisturbed by foreign or domestic Enemies, we confidently trust that the United Kingdom, duly impressed with your Majesty's paternal Care, will grow in Attachment whilst it advances in Welfare, Prosperity, and Renown.

Given under our Common-Seal at the Tolfey, in the faid City, the Sixteenth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by H. Howard, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Worshipful the Mayor, the Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote affembled.

May it please your Majesty, WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote affembled, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our most cordial and fincere Congratulations upon your Majefty's providential Deliverance from a dreadful Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's most facred and invaluable Life, and the Foundation of our excellent Constitution.

Revering, as we do, your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we could not have supposed that even an Individual could have been found in your Majesty's Dominions so deprayed, as to have harboured a Thought tending to its Subversion and Overthrow. And we fincercly hope that the awful and jult Sentence of the Law, lately carried into Execution against those Persons convicted as Traitors to their Country, will more firmly unite all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, in the Protect on of your Majesty's Royal Person, and in the Maintenance of our dearest Rights and Liberties both Civil and Religious.

We fervently pray, that your Majesty's Life, rendered dear to us by your many and transcendant