

Home, and the more open Assaults of foreign Foes.

Signed at Stonehaven, Head Burgh of said County, by our Appointment in our Name and Presence, by Alexander Burnett, of Strachan, Esq; Sheriff Depute of the County, our Prefes, this Thirty-first Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three. Al. Burnett, Prefes.

[Transmitted by Sir John Stuart, Bart. and presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The dutiful and loyal Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

REMOTE in Situation from the Seat of your Government, in our Hearts we are ever near your Majesty. The Influence of your mild and paternal Rule has reached us your distant but grateful Subjects; and we acknowledge, with Thankfulness to Divine Providence, the Blessings we have enjoyed under your virtuous and exemplary Reign.

With inexpressible Horror and Indignation we learn that a Traitor's Blow has been meditated at our Sovereign's Life, but that Almighty Care, which guards your People, has preserved that Life so essential to their Happiness, and to the best Interests of this Empire.

Accept, Sire, the Love and Loyalty of your faithful Highlanders. Rely on their Attachment to your Person, to your Family, and to our glorious Constitution. And may the King of Kings long preserve your Life and protract your Reign: May it please your Majesty, your faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, other Heritors, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Alexander Macdonell, of Glengarry, Esq; Prefes of our General Meeting held at Inverness this Eleventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

A. Macdonell, Prefes.

[Presented by Charles Grant, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Majesty's Island of Man.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys of your Island of Man, beg Leave to approach your Throne with a Tender of our warmest Congratulations on the Detection and Defeat of the late treasonable Conspiracy, which menaced equal Outrage against your Majesty and our happy Constitution.

May the ignominious Forfeit these Miscreants have paid to the violated Laws of their Country, be an awful Lesson to deter others from the like atrocious Attempts; and should any Partisans of Anarchy and Innovation still remain, may the Almighty incline their Hearts to weigh with due Consideration the civil Liberty they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign; that, having learnt to appreciate its Worth, and your Majesty's Virtues, they may be led to look up with Reverence and Affection to the Father of his People, and direct their Enthusiasm to the Support of a Constitution not to be paralleled in the Annals of the World.

May the same good Providence, which has hitherto guarded your Majesty, still continue to protect your Majesty from the Danger of secret Conspiracy and open Violence; and may your Majesty long reign over a flourishing, happy, and loyal People.

Alex. Shaw, Lieut. Governor.

17th March 1803.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Guild-Stewards and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild Stewards and Burgeses of the Borough of Calne aforesaid, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty on the Detection and (we hope) total Extinction of the late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, aimed at the Subversion of our Government, and the Destruction of our excellent and revered Constitution, by a deliberate and diabolical Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Providence and the Vigilance of your Majesty's Ministers have combined to defeat this nefarious Enterprize; and we trust that the just and exemplary Punishment inflicted on the Ringleaders of it will effectually operate to prevent any future Attempts of so atrocious a Nature; and that your Majesty will continue long, very long, to reign over your free and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the same Borough, the Twenty-third Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Henry Petty.]

Inspired with Reverence for those Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Royal Character, and impressed with a due Sense of the many and great Blessings we have enjoyed under
