Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 19, to Saturday April 23, 1803.

St. James's, April 20, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, duly for the Purpose convened by the Mayor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Designs against the Life of our beloved Sovereign. We acknowledge with the most unfeigned Gratitude, the signal Interposition of Divine Providence under which the Conspirators were timely arrested, and their Treasons most happily frustrated. And we sincerely hope that the Punishment so justly inflicted on the Traitors may secure our beloved Monarch from future Danger, and preserve to your Subjects the inestimable Blessings of our happy Constitution.

Deeply sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and viewing with Abhorrence the Attempts of Domestic Traitors against your sacred Person, and with Indignation the insidious Machinations of foreign Powers against your Majesty's Dominions; we cheerfully offer our Lives and Fortunes in Support and Defence of our revered King and Constitution against the malignant Efforts of Domestic or foreign Enemies.

Done under the Common Seal of the City of Kilkenny, this Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Failure of the late malignant and Traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

We contemplate with Pride those Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Reign; and we admire that Firmness of Mind which has supported our inestimable Constitution; a Constitution which we love and adore, and which has hitherto secured Happiness and Independence to your Empire.

We consider every Design against your Majesty's Person as exciting from the Hearts of your loyal Subjects renewals of Affection, Gratitude, and Veneration; and we rejoice that the late Examples of wicked and misguided Traitors afford an awful Picture of the Inflexible Justice of the Country.

We most earnestly pray for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over a free and loyal People.

In Testimony of the above we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Captain Barlow, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by Captain Stratton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, our most sincere and lively Congratulations on the timely Discovery and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Attached as we are, to your Majesty, by Inclination as well as Duty, living as we do, in the Enjoyment of every Right, under your Majesty's benign Influence and our invaluable Constitution, we view with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the wicked Attempts that have been made to
