

destroy our Government and our Happiness, and to introduce in their Place, Anarchy, and Revolution.

Whilst we pray, for a long Continuance of your Majesty's mild and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Affection and Loyalty can only receive additional Strength from every Attempt that may be made against your Royal Person.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the City of Elgin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Community of the City of Elgin, in Common-Council assembled, humbly offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the late providential Discovery and Defeat of the horrid Plot and Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and all the constituted Authorities of the Kingdom.

Feeling the Blessings we derive from your Majesty's guardian Care of our civil and religious Liberties, and of the Constitution so well calculated to secure them, and united by every Tie that can bind a grateful and affectionate People, we were deeply penetrated with Horror at the atrocious Plan, tending to overwhelm our dearest Interests, the Life of our most gracious Sovereign, and the Stability of our Constitution.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruits of those domestic Virtues which you have cultivated with so much pious Care; that the bright Example of them may long and successfully operate on the Hearts and Conduct of your Majesty's grateful and affectionate Subjects; and that those princely Virtues which have raised to so exalted a Height the Power, Prosperity, and Renown of Great Britain, may long continue to display themselves triumphantly at the Head of a great Nation, and a glorious Constitution, in the Maintenance of true Religion, Liberty, and social Order, is, in the utmost Fervor of our Hearts, the Prayer we offer up for your Majesty to the Author of all Good.

Signed, in Presence of, and by Appointment of the Council,
Jos. King, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the Detection of the late atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Authority.

While we express our Regret and Astonishment that any of your Majesty's Subjects could be guilty of harbouring treasonable Designs, we rejoice that those who have suffered the just Punishment of the Law, should, with one Exception, have belonged to the lowest Classes of Society, and that their Crimes may reasonably be imputed to wild and delusive Expectations operating on Minds incapable of estimating the Blessings of your just and paternal Government.

We trust that the Event of this, and of all other Attempts directed against your Majesty will produce a suitable Impression on the Enemies of our Constitution, and convince them that the Divine Providence will always signally interpose in the Preservation of a Life so intimately connected with the Happiness of a great People.

Given under the Seal of the said City, the Twenty-fifth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.
R. Hodgson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Viscount Lovelher.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the sincerest Congratulation for the Detection and Failure of the dreadful Conspiracy that so lately threatened your sacred Person.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that there is no Part of your Majesty's Dominions more sensible of the Blessings of your Reign, or more zealously actuated by Loyalty than your Subjects of the County of Limerick; and that in Proportion to those Feelings is the Horror with which we are impressed by any Attempt upon your Majesty's Life, and the Energy with which we will arm ourselves to resist any Attack upon your Majesty's Government. And we further beg Leave to take this Opportunity of declaring, that should the wise and benevolent Disposition of your Majesty's Councils towards Peace be frustrated, we will stake all that is most dear to us for the Security of your Majesty's Territories, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution.

Bolton Waller, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, assembled at Spring Assizes 1803.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon your late providential Escape from the traitorous Machinations of the Enemies of your sacred Person and our happy Constitution, which we view with the utmost Horror and Detestation; and to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be zealous and active in our Exertions for the Protection of your Majesty's Person, your illustrious Family, and the Maintenance of our happy Constitution and Government.

*Grice Smyth, High Sheriff.
