

And we embrace this Opportunity to renew the Assurances of our unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and to your illustrious House, our Readiness at all Times to defend, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's invaluable Life against the Attempts of secret or avowed Enemies, and our firm Determination to exert ourselves at all Times to bring to light, and to defeat any traitorous Attempt to disturb the public Tranquillity, or to excite Sedition amongst your Majesty's Subjects.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the County of Wicklow, at a Meeting held in Wicklow, April Fifth, One thousand eight hundred and three.

William Heighington, Sheriff of the County of Wicklow.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the sincerest Sentiments of Congratulation on the Detection and Failure of the late horrible Conspiracy against the Person and Government of your sacred Majesty.

We deplore the dangerous and treasonable Spirit which actuated those worthless and guilty Individuals; and contemplate with unbounded Gratitude the signal Interposition of an all-gracious Providence, so often manifested in the Preservation of a Life endeared to the Subjects of this Realm by your Majesty's public and private Virtues.

We have a just and proper Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under the mild and paternal Government of your Majesty: We know the Superiority of our glorious Constitution; and we hereby declare our firm Resolution to resist to the utmost of our Ability all treasonable, all hostile Attempts, whether domestic or foreign, that may be made by wicked Men or ambitious Governments against the Person of your Majesty, and the Safety of your Dominions.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in perfect Health and undisturbed Security over this free, loyal, and happy Nation.

Henry Grosfold Lewis, High Sheriff.

[Presented by D. S. Dugdale, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Galway, assembled pursuant to public Notice.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot view in silent Abhorrence the late unnatural Conspiracy against your sacred Person, and the Liberties of your People. We are grateful for the signal Interposition of Divine Providence which has defeated a Purpose so atrocious, and preserved our beloved Sovereign, and the Tranquillity of the Empire.

We deplore that any Subjects living under the freest and happiest Government in the World, could be lost to Gratitude and their Allegiance so far, as to conspire against a Life rendered dear by its virtuous Influence, and sacred by our ancient Laws.

Your faithful Subjects are firmly persuaded that their Liberties are identified with the Safety, Honour, and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown; and we acknowledge with Gratitude the manifold Benefits which we have received during your auspicious Reign. Sensible of the Blessings of external Peace and internal Security, we view unawed, but not without Regret, those recent Appearances which menace Interruption of public Tranquillity. We assure your Majesty, however, that should the Aggression of any other Power renew those Troubles which we deprecate, we are ready to defend, by every generous Exertion of Loyalty, your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Honor of the British Constitution.

N. Blake, High Sheriff of the County of Galway.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Dunlop, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the wicked Designs of Bloodthirsty Conspirators. Truly sensible of the Blessings we have long enjoyed under your mild Government, we solemnly pledge ourselves to hazard every Thing that is dear to us in the Support of it, as well against foreign as domestic Enemies. And whilst many other States tamely submit to the galling Yoke, we will convince the haughty Ruler of a Great Nation, that Britons never will be Slaves.

Signed at the Request, and in the Name of the Meeting.

Geo. Bowen, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Milford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, in a general Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, beg Leave to approach your Throne with most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from a daring and wicked Plot against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our valuable Constitution.

Highly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, our Hearts are unfeignedly thankful for the Defeat of the diabolical Designs of those Conspirators against your Majesty's Person and Government, who were so justly brought to condign Punish-
