

ment: And it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may be long preserved to rule over a free and happy People.

We embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that, if Recourse to Arms is again necessary, we will be ready to come forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty, and of our excellent Constitution.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Leven and Melville.

[Presented by Sir William Erskine, Bart Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the High-Sheriff, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from a late desperate and traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's Person and Government.

May the same Divine Power, which hath so eminently watched over your Majesty, ever guard a Life so endeared to all your Subjects by your constant and unwearied Attention to their Prosperity and Honor: And may the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution be continued to us and our Posterity under the protecting Influence of your Majesty's most illustrious House.

In the Name and at the Request of the Freeholders and Inhabitants,

Thomas Rawlings, Sheriff.

[Presented by the High Sheriff and the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Machinations of Treason; and with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Almighty we acknowledge this among the many signal Instances of his Divine Interposition, and that a timely Detection of the Conspiracy was permitted to prevent the awful Consequences, which the Completion of such a Scheme must inevitably have produced; and we sincerely hope that the same Almighty Power, which has hitherto protected your Majesty's invaluable Life, will continue to guard and preserve it; that you may long reign the beloved Sovereign of a loyal, free, and happy People.

On Behalf of the County,

Shafto Crafter, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Presented by the Honorable Charles Grey, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Carnarvon, assembled at the Grand Jury Room in the Town of Carnarvon, on Monday the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our dutiful and heartfelt Congratulations on the recent Detection and Defeat of the nefarious and treasonable Designs upon your Majesty's Life.

In this Instance, as in others peculiarly affecting the well-being of these Realms, we recognise the Interposition of a merciful and just Providence watching over the Life of a beloved Sovereign, the Safeguard of our civil and religious Liberties, and of all the political Happiness, which, as a Nation, we so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government: At the same Time we cannot help experiencing the deepest Regret and Astonishment in reflecting there have been found among the Subjects of a Prince, who deserves their warmest Affections, Persons capable of engaging in a Plot so strange and unnatural; and such as only could have been engendered in the most depraved Mind, and fostered only in a callous Heart. But still we feel a grateful Conviction of our own Security in the mild but effective Operation of those Laws, which guard equally the Frame of our happy Constitution, and the Lives and Liberties of all your Majesty's Subjects.

G. Ll. Wardle, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, convened by the High-Sheriff on Wednesday the Thirtieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, holding in Abhorrence and extreme Detestation every Attempt which could endanger the Life of our beloved and revered Sovereign, beg Leave humbly to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from a late wicked and traitorous Conspiracy, intended against your Royal Person and Government. To your Majesty's transcendent Virtues we attribute that, under your auspicious Reign, we have for a Series of Years enjoyed every Blessing which could be expected, while Wildness and Anarchy prevailed in neighbouring Nations; and we still entertain a confident Hope that the same Almighty Power, which has been your Majesty's Shield and Defence from former traitorous Machinations, will continue his gracious Protection, and preserve to us, for Years to come, a Life of inestimable Value to your Majesty's faithful and grateful People.

Henry Archer, High-Sheriff of the County of Wexford.

[Presented by the Marquis of Ely.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, have heard with Horror and Indignation of the atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person; and therefore humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most earnest Assurances of the firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, deeply impressed with a true Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, and your
