[Presented by the Marquis of Douglas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Banff, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Preservation from the late detestable Conspiracy, which was formed to destroy the sacred Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the revered Constitution and Government of this Realm.

We rely with Confidence, as it is our fervent Prayer, that the same Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your precious Life, will continue to guard your Majesty against all Assaults foreign or domestic, and long preserve to your faithful Subjects a Monarch, whose chief Care has ever been the Welfare and Happiness of his People.

Signed in our Name, and by Appointment, in a General Meeting of the said County, held at Banff this Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, by

Geo. Abercromby, Preses.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Sir William Grant, Master of the Rolls, and Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Derby, deeply abhorring and execrating the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the Detection of that most mischievous and atrocious Design, and on the happy Preservation of your Majesty. Truly sensible, as we are, of your Majesty's ever watchful Attention to the Security of your People, the Security of your Majesty must always be our dearest Concern. With Hearts filled with Gratitude, Reverence, and affectionate Attachment, we humbly beg Leave to offer our most earnest Wishes for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Life.

Signed by the Order, and in the Name of a General County Meeting, held at Derby, the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three. Robert Wilmot, Sheriff.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Devonshire, the Right Honorable Lord G. H. Cavendish, and Edward M. Mundy, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most heartfelt Congratulations on the Detection and Failure of the late atrocious and daring Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government. We offer our sincere Thanks to that Almighty Providence which has in this, as well as in former Instances, guarded and protected your Majesty's sacred Life from the Attempts of Traitors; and we cannot but lament, that in these Dominions there could exist Principles capable of giving Birth to a Crime of such Enormity, and Persons capable of putting it into Execution. While in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, we feel highly sensible of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and beneficent Government, our Duty and our Interest equally concur in teaching us, that the Prosperity of this great and important Country, and even the Existence of our Manufactures and Commerce are peculiarly involved in the Support of our invaluable Constitution. We heartily pray, that the Divine Providence may continue to watch over your Majesty's Life, and preserve it for many Years from the Violence of open Enemies or the Attempts of secret Conspirators, for the Happiness of your faithful and affectionate People.

In the Name of the Meeting,

Isaac Blackburne, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Caithness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Landholders of the County of Caithness, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations on the timely Discovery of the late traitorous Designs against your Royal Person.

Sensible, as we are, how closely united the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects is with the Preservation of your most valuable Life, we cannot view without Abhorrence the detestable and traitorous Plans that were laid by a few daring and desperate Persons to make an Attempt on it, or think of the happy Discovery of that Plot, by which a Life so valuable to all your Majesty's Subjects was preserved, without returning the Supreme Director of all Things our most fervent Thanks for the Discovery and final Discomfiture of it.

We trust that the firm and decided Execution of the Laws upon the unnatural Projectors of so black a Deed will deter others from Attempts of the same Kind: That the Solemnity and Impartiality of their Trial will convince the whole World of the Happiness enjoyed by all Ranks under your Ma-
