

overthrow and destroy our excellent and revered Government and Constitution by a deliberate and atrocious Design against the sacred Person of your Majesty.

Deeply impressed with the great Happiness we enjoy under the paternal Government of your Majesty, in the impartial Protection of our Persons and Properties, and the Exercise of true Liberty, we cannot sufficiently express our Indignation and Abhorrence of the traitorous Machinations of the late insatuated and wicked Conspirators; and we feel a renewed, and, if possible, an additional Impulse for the Preservation of your Majesty's inestimable Life.

We consider the late Attempt as one of the last Heads of that Hydra of Faction and Anarchy which has menaced civil Society in these portentous Times; and trust that, under Divine Providence, and by the united Vigilance and Exertions of your Majesty's Ministers and loyal Subjects, your Majesty may long live to reign in the Hearts of a free People, and preserve the Independence, Honor, Prosperity, and Peace of the United Kingdom against all treasonable or ambitious Projects both of domestic and foreign Enemies.

Signed on Behalf of the County this Thirty-first Day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively, for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.
