

Majesty's Life and Government : And we hope and trust that your Majesty's Life will long be preserved to bless your dutiful and loyal Subjects, to whom your gracious Majesty has, during a long and happy Reign, set the brightest Example of Piety and Virtue.

Given under our Common-Seal at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Twenty-eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by W. A. Madocks, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Chipping Campden, and also of the Inhabitants of the several Hamlets or Tythings of Berrington, Broad Campden, Westington, and Coombe, lying within the Parish of Chipping Campden, in the County of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Steward, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Parish of Chipping Campden, in the County of Gloucester, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our free Constitution ; gratefully appreciating the many Advantages which have accompanied the Progress of your Majesty's Reign, both in Arts, Wealth, Liberty, and every Species of National Prosperity ; and feeling that your paternal Care has been extended to every Class of your Subjects, humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations upon the Failure of that audacious and most wicked Conspiracy, directed against the sacred Person of your Majesty with an Intention of destroying, from its Foundation, the British Constitution.

Roused by the Love we bear your Majesty, and the Veneration with which we regard our established Form of Government, we are of Opinion that, at this important Conjunction, it is the Duty of every Individual of Honesty and Common Sense to express in the most public and efficacious Manner their utter Abhorrence of those Principles, which alone could engender so monstrous a Purpose ; Principles calculated to infligate to the Perpetration of every Enormity the malignant or misguided Spirits who adopt them, and to eradicate from the human Breast every Sentiment belonging to the Dignity of our Nature.

We reflect with Astonishment upon the miserable Contrivers of this hateful Project, equally contemptible as it is atrocious ; for (aimed at a Life justly endeared to all except themselves and their infamous and most hardened Associates, and against a Form of Government the most excellent in the World) nothing but a Stupidity darkening and confusing, by a most providential Consequence, the Minds of Men which admit the Entertainment of shameful and cruel Delights of Treasons, could have induced them for a Moment to expect its Success, or even to escape Detection before the dreadful Hour of its Explosion : Such a Disposition, however wonderful, having been shewn to exist, must be watched and guarded against in every Quarter of your Majesty's Dominions. And we assure your Majesty that we will oppose to all Enemies of the State, both foreign and domestic, the most energetic Resistance in our Power.

We are thankful, that, by the laudable Vigilance of your Majesty's Administration, this meditated Scene of Riot, Murder, and Plunder has been prevented ; and we earnestly hope that the universal Prayer addressed to the Throne of Grace for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Life may be granted to an affectionate and loyal People.

Dated at Chipping Campden the Sixth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Gerard Noel Noel, Esq; Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Rutland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble but loyal Congratulatory Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal, dutiful, and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Principal Inhabitants of Falmouth, in Cornwall, humbly beg Leave, thus publicly to express to your Majesty and the World, our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the late traitorous and atrocious Conspiracies levelled against your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and the envied Constitution of this Kingdom ; and our sincere Thanks to Almighty God for his providential and timely Detection thereof.

That the same Almighty Providence may continue to preserve to us the Blessings of our present Constitution in Church and State under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty, whose Life we hope to see protracted to a late, very late, Period of Time, and of your Royal Race, shall be our constant and ardent Prayer.

And we thus further beg Leave to declare our firm Resolution at all Times, as far as may be in our Power, to defend to the utmost your Majesty's Person against all Enemies public and private, and aid and support your Majesty's uniform Endeavours to preserve inviolate that Constitution, the Blessings of which we have so long enjoyed.

March 28, 1803. Tippet, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Wadehouse, Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations, that by the Interposition of Providence the horrid Plot lately laid against the sacred Life of your Majesty has been detected and frustrated.
