

Conscious that we have long enjoyed many and eminent Blessings under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we reflect with Abhorrence and Detestation on the Designs of those deluded and abandoned Men against a Life so justly dear to all, and on which the public Prosperity so manifestly depends.

And we earnestly pray, that by the same watchful and kind Providence your Majesty may long be preferred as a common Blessing to your faithful People.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting,
W. Birch, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Mills, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcaldy, in Council assembled, for ourselves, and in the Name of the Community of the Burgh, with grateful Thanks to Almighty God, beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on the providential Discovery, and Defeat of the late traitorous Conspiracy against your Royal Person and Government.

Most anxious for the Welfare of our Country, which is so nearly connected with your Majesty's personal Safety, we embrace this Opportunity of renewing our Expressions of sincere Attachment and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government. And it is our earnest Prayer, that that Providence, which has hitherto watched over your valuable Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and preserve to your Majesty's faithful Subjects, a Monarch, whose chief Care has been the Happiness of his People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, this Fourth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three Years.

Walter Fergus, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Sheffield, in the County of York, beg Leave, with due Humility, to approach your Royal Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from one of the most horrid and atrocious Conspiracies that has ever appeared on the Records of human Depravity.

Had not the Fact been incontestably established by the Verdict of an English Jury, it would have been extremely difficult to have reconciled the Mind to a Belief that the Perpetration of so foul a Deed, a Crime which appals us with Horror and Dismay, could possibly have been in the Contemplation of any human Being, much less in that of any of your Majesty's Subjects.

At a Time when Objects of the greatest National Importance must necessarily occupy your Royal Attention, it would ill become us to presume to add more than humbly to assure your Majesty that we will earnestly offer up our most fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that he may be graciously pleased to continue his superintending Care to protect and guard your Royal Person from every possible Injury; and that your Majesty's Reign may be protracted to a very remote Period of Time, and may, henceforth, prove as uninterruptedly happy to the Monarch as it has been uniformly propitious to the Subjects of the British Empire.

[Presented by the Honorable Henry Lascelles and William Wilberforce, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Queensferry, being truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave to offer our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty that the wicked and traitorous Conspiracies, which lately threatened to undermine the Constitution, have been discovered, and the daring and most flagitious Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person has been defeated.

The Preservation of your Majesty's Life is so dear to every Class of your Majesty's Subjects, that we shall unceasingly offer up our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for the happy Deliverance from the very imminent Danger with which your Majesty was threatened, and that your Majesty may long live to fill in Glory and Peace that Throne which your Majesty has preserved unhaken, and from which your Majesty has dispensed the most signal Blessings upon a grateful People.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate in Name and by Appointment of the Council, the Common-Seal of the Burgh being also hereto affixed, at Queensferry, the Nineteenth Day of March Eighteen hundred and three Years.

John Martin.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the Discovery and Failure of the late wicked and treasonable Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We cannot in Language sufficiently strong express our Horror and Detestation of so atrocious a Design to destroy our free and happy Constitution by an Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Life,—a Life rendered invaluable to us by those Virtues which so eminently adorn your Majesty's public and private Character.

We beg to assure your Majesty that it is our fixed Resolution, as it is our most sacred Duty, to defend and protect your Majesty's sacred Person, and
