By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Patrick Earl of Dumfries was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased, in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his Room, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood-House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Sixteenth Day of June next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers of this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Room of the said Patrick Earl of Dumfries, deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall then be present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And we strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross, at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least, before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.
GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of May 1803,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint William Earl of Mansfield, to be Lord Lieutenant of the Shire of Clackmannan, in North Britain, his Lordship this Day took and subscribed the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration; and also subscribed the Assurance, conformably to what is required by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March last, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing equal Date, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations respectively, for Payment of said the Bounties and Reward, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of April 1803,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue, until the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four, several Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation and permitting the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty; to the Relief of Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and to the regulating the Trade and Commerce to and from the Isle of Malta;" His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That the Prohibition laid, by Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, upon the Exportation from any Port or Place in Great Britain of any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or of any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof; and also the Liberty, granted by the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Twelfth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and one, to import and take out of Warehouse Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and likewise to import sundry other Articles of Provision Duty free, should be further continued until the Thirty-first Day of March last, save and except the Importation, Duty free, of the Articles of Rice and Malt; and save and except, as it was declared by the said Order, that nothing therein contained was intended to extend, or should be construed to extend, to affect or apply to any Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, or any Importation of Malt from Ireland to Great Britain, in the Manner authorized by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for continuing, until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, an Act made in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating, until the Fifteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and three, the Prices at which Grain, Meal, and Flour may be exported from Great Britain to Ireland, and from Ireland to Great Britain; and for permitting, from and after the passing thereof, until the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, the Exportation of Seed Corn from Great Britain to Ireland, and the Importation of Malt into Great Britain from Ireland:" And whereas His Majesty's said Order in Council of the Thirty-first Day of December last has been further continued until the Thirtieth Day of this instant April:

And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers given by the First of the above-recited Acts, passed in the present Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirty-first of December last, and all the Exceptions, Provisoos, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, specified and enforced by the said Order, respecting such Exportation and Importation, and taking out of Warehouse, shall be, and continue in Force until the Thirty-first Day of May next inclusive, in the same Manner as the same are now in Force by the said Order, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December last. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, May 4, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Rutland, holding in just Abhorrence the late atrocious and diabolical Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person and

Government, and the Existence of our most invaluable Constitution, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most hearty Congratulations on the Discovery thereof, and timely Punishment of its wicked and contemptible Authors.

We beg Leave, Sire, to express our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Family and Government; and we sincerely pray to the Almighty that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, attended with neither Alarm or Danger; and we trust our Conduct will, at all Times, prove our Zeal in the Support of the Laws and Constitution of our Country against all traitorous Conspiracies, and all foreign and domestic Enemies.

Signed at the Castle in Oakham, on Monday the Eighteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three, at the Request of the Meeting, by the Chairman.

Carbery.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Carbery, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the Discovery of the detestable Conspiracy against your sacred Person.

Justly appreciating the Value of a mild and wise Administration of the Laws under which we live, we reflect with Surprise and Horror on the Machinations of a desperate Band of Traitors; and we trust the late most just and necessary Example will demonstrate, that they who seek their present Advantage in the Subversion of social Order, will meet the Destruction they merit. The Principles which actuated the atrocious Rebels we detest and execrate; the Vigilance and Energy of those by whom their diabolical Designs were prevented we admire and applaud; and we thank the merciful Ruler of the Universe that he has extended his protecting Arm over this highly-favoured Isle, by preserving a Life, for the Safety of which our Interest, our Duty, and our Gratitude bind us continually to pray.

[Presented by Sir Robert Williams Vaughan, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, assembled at Lent Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Leitrim, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from the wicked and daring Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Our Abhorrence of the Intention can only be equalled by our Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Detection of a Plot calculated to destroy the Life of our beloved Sovereign, and to overturn the Constitution and Government of the Realm.

We trust that the exemplary and just Punishment inflicted on the Traitors will prevent the Repetition of such atrocious Designs; and that the Vigilance and Energy of your Majesty's Government, aided by the Loyalty of your Subjects, will defeat every Attack upon our glorious and invaluable Constitution.

Signed by Order and on Behalf of the County,
Pat. Dundas, Sheriff.

[Presented by Viscount Clements, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Anglesey, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's Preservation by a providential Detection and Disappointment of a detestable Conspiracy which was formed for the Destruction of a beloved Sovereign, and to overthrow the Constitution and Government of the Realm.

While we reflect with Horror and Amazement on the atrocious and wicked Designs of those Traitors, whose Hearts could propose the Perpetration of a Crime of such Enormity, we cannot but offer our Thanksgivings to the Supreme Director of Events, who has, by his Interposition, protected your Majesty against the assassinating Hand of the Conspirators.

Feeling the benign Influence of your Majesty's Government uniformly directed to the Welfare of your People, and admiring those estimable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's sacred Character, we are confident that the Spirit of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and the Constitution continues firm and unaltered.

We hope that the Example of those, whose Lives have been so justly forfeited to the Vengeance of the Law, may be the Means of checking those flagitious Principles, which are subversive of all social Order and legitimate Authority.

We who, in this favoured Nation, know not their baneful Effects, and who enjoy the Blessings of a Constitution and Laws best calculated for the Happiness of a People, must see with painful Concern an Attempt to deprive us of those Privileges, and to introduce amongst us a System of Anarchy and Confusion.

Fortunately, for your Majesty's Subjects, the Designs of wicked Men have, by the Vigilance of Government, been frustrated; and we rely with Confidence that the same Providence, which has never ceased to watch over your gracious Life, will continue to guard and protect it, and to preserve to your Subjects a Monarch, who, we pray, may long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and united People.

W. B. Hughes, Sheriff.

[Presented by William Bulkeley Hughes, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs, Durgesies, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, beg Leave most fervently to join in the general Congratulation on the Detection and Defeat of the late treasonable and flagitious Conspiracy formed against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Impressed with a just and grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's benign and auspicious Reign, and animated with the warmest Sentiments of personal Attachment towards your Majesty, from the Contemplation of those Virtues, which, whilst they shed Lustre round the Throne, adorn the Path of private Life, and hold forth a bright Example for Imitation, we cannot but regard with proportionate and indignant Abhorrence all Designs and Attempts whatever, tending to endanger these inestimable Benefits; and we ardently pray that the same Almighty Power, who rules the Fate of Empires, and holds in his Hands the Destinies of Men, may long preserve and uphold your Majesty against all your Enemies, and thereby secure the Continuance of the Happiness, Prosperity, and Glory, of a free, loyal, and united People.

John Smith, Mayor.

[Presented by James Caldwell, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Westmorland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, beg Leave to offer our very sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Deliverance from the wicked Conspiracies of traitorous and evil minded Men.

Fully satisfied that we live under the best Constitution this Day existing on the Earth, and under which all Ranks enjoy equal Liberty, and the Protection of equal Laws, administered by the best of Kings, we are truly sensible that we cannot be sufficiently thankful to Almighty God for the manifold Blessings we enjoy; and we most fervently pray that your Majesty may long reign over a People happily united in their Attachment to your Majesty's august Person, Family, and Government, and zealous to support and preserve unimpaired the most excellent Constitution of their Kingdoms.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Burgh the Thirtieth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

Tho. Hurd, Mayor.

[Presented by Richard Howard, Esq; the Recorder of the said Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your happy Preservation from the late horrid Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our invaluable Constitution.

Deeply impressed with the Sense of your Majesty's just and mild Government, and attached to your Royal Person by our Veneration for he many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, and afford a bright Example to your Subjects; we acknowledge with the utmost Gratitude the merciful Interposition of that Providence which has been so signally manifested on the present as on preceding Occasions, and it will be our fervent Prayer to Almighty God, that he will continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty's Life, so justly dear to all your Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, and under the Hands of us the Inhabitants, the Ninth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by Thomas Godfrey, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln; and also the Inhabitants of Saint Martin's, Stamford-Baron, in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stamford, and the Inhabitants of the said Borough, and of the Parish of Saint Martin's, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Sentiments of Congratulation on the providential Discovery and Defeat of a most wicked and atrocious Conspiracy against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our estimable Constitution.

Truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild, unceasing, and paternal Government, we cannot but feel the greatest Abhorrence of those nefarious Designs, which, by depriving us of a revered and beloved Sovereign, and destroying our Government, would have plunged a prosperous and happy People into Misery.

That Providence, which has hitherto so signally preserved your Majesty, may shield and guard you from all wicked and desperate Men, and long continue your Majesty on the Throne of this Kingdom, is our most sincere and earnest Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town-Hall of the said Borough, the Twelfth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Thomas Harper, Mayor.

[Presented by General Leland and Lieutenant-General Bertie, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

And also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled "AN ACT for appointing Commissioners for distributing the “ Money stipulated to be paid by the United States of America, under the Convention made between His Majesty and the said United States, among the Persons having Claims to Compensation out of such Money;” Thomas Macdonald, Esquire, Henry Pye Rich, Esquire, and John Guillemard, Esquire, are constituted and appointed Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid; and it is enacted that the Adjudication of such Commissioners, or any Two of them, as to all Claims made for Compensation out of such Money, and also as to the Apportionment or Distribution thereof as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive: And whereas it is thereby further enacted, that no Claim or Request of any Person or Persons under the said Act, shall be received after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four: And whereas His Majesty by the said Convention (dated the 8th Day of January 1802,) consented to accept of the said Money so to be paid by the said United States, (amounting in the Whole to SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS Sterling,) for the Use of the Persons described in the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation concluded at London, on the 4th Day of November 1794, between His Majesty and the said United States, in Satisfaction and Discharge of the Money which the United States might have been liable to pay in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Sixth Article.—All Persons who think themselves entitled, as being within the Description of the said Sixth Article of the said Treaty, and the Meaning of the said Convention, to claim under the said Act; and who have not already preferred Claims at this Office under the said Convention, pursuant to and in Terms of the Notice in the London Gazette of the 11th Day of September last, (which Claims so preferred in Terms of the said Notice, will be held and considered by the said Commissioners as Claims under the above Act of Parliament,) are hereby required, without Delay, and at farthest on or before the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and four, when the Sum total of Claims will be finally made up and ascertained; to present and deliver at this Office, their respective Claims, in the Form of Memorials, addressed to the Commissioners under the said Act of Parliament, and duly signed by the Parties, or their Agents respectively authorized for that Purpose, with such relative Lists or Schedules of Debts and Debtors as the several Cases may admit of or require; the said Memorials and relative Lists or Schedules distinctly setting forth the several Points enumerated and described in the said former Notice under the Convention; of which former Notice, printed Copies will be delivered at this Office to all who shall apply for the same.

And inasmuch as Claims have already been received, under the said Convention, to a much greater Amount than the Money to be distributed, and the Commissioners, while they prevent, as far as in them lies, all unnecessary Discussion and Delay, will nevertheless proceed so as to ensure as much as possible the Means of full Investigation, and of equal Justice to all concerned, Notice is hereby given, that the several Claims, Schedules, and Accounts, with a List of all the Claimants, will be open at this Office for the Inspection of every Claimant, or the authorized Agent of such Claimant, who may state such Objections in Writing (duly signed by such Claimant or Agent) as he may desire to have submitted to the Consideration of the Commissioners; which Objections the said Commissioners, if they see Cause so to do, will allow the respective Claimants against whose Claims, in the Whole or in Part, the same shall be directed, to see and answer; such Inspection of Claims to be made in the Manner, and according to the Rules, which, with the general Orders of the Board for regulating the Course of the Proceedings before them, will be communicated at this Office.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Hay, Secretary.

Office of the Commissioners for Claims under the Convention with the United States of America, Great Marlborough-Street, No. 7, May 7, 1803.

Navy-Office, April 28, 1803.
