

Twenty-fourth and Twenty-eighth Years of His late Majesty, and of the Fourth, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-ninth, and Thirty-eighth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, for repairing the Turnpike and other High Roads in the County of Edinburgh.

An Act for enlarging the Term and Powers of Two Acts passed in the Fourteenth and Thirty-second Years of His present Majesty's Reign, for more effectually making and repairing the Road from the City of Glasgow to Yoker-Bridge, and the Road of Communication between the same, and the Canal from the Forth to the Clyde.

And Twenty-two Private Acts.

St. James's, May 18, 1803.

This Day Baron Belmont de Melcor had a private Audience of His Majesty to deliver his Credentials as Minister Plenipotentiary from His Serene Highness the Elector of Wurtemberg :

To which he was introduced by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 18, 1803.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King ; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Trustees of the United Towns of Port Glasgow and Newark, impressed with the deepest Sense of the Danger of the late diabolical Conspiracy, which your Majesty, under the Protection of Almighty God, escaped, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne with the most heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, and grateful Thanks to the Divine Goodness, which preserved your sacred Life.

That your Majesty may ever be the special Care of Providence, and long reign, as you have hitherto done, the King and Father of your People, and your Descendants after you to the latest Ages ; and that your Subjects may be sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and just Government, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Towns, in the Name, and Presence, and by Appointment of the Bailies and Trustees of the said Towns, in Council assembled at Port Glasgow, the Eighth Day of April, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three, by
Archd. Falconer, Eldest Bailie.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Greenock, in Council assembled, beg to approach your Majesty's Throne with our humble but warm Congratulations on the Exposure and Discomfiture of the late treasonable Conspiracy, directed against your Majesty's most sacred Person, and against that mild and equitable Government, which ought to ensure the Affection, as it secures the Happiness of the whole United Kingdom.

Whilst we deeply lament the Turpitude of the Individuals who sought to disturb the Blessings we enjoy, we give unfeigned Thanks to Heaven for your Majesty's Preservation ; and we offer up our ardent Prayers, that you may long continue to reign with undiminished Glory over a united, free, and affectionate People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by the Magistrates, and sealed with the Corporation-Seal, at Greenock, the Fourth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

Walter Ritchie and Hugh Craufurd, Magistrates.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, experience the most sincere Satisfaction and Felicity in congratulating your Majesty on the fortunate Escape from the late treasonable Conspiracy against your Person and Government, in averting which the Protection of the Omnipotent is most decidedly discernible ; and it is our most fervent Wish and Prayer, that your Majesty may long live in the Enjoyment of personal and domestic Tranquillity ; and that your Subjects may continue to participate, under your Majesty, the Blessings of a mild and well-regulated Government.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Town, in the Name, and Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, at Paisley, this Twenty-eighth of March One thousand eight hundred and three.

Andrew Moody, C. M.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall, Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the Discovery of the late most atrocious Combination against your Majesty's Person and Government.

While we reflect with just Abhorrence on the Formation of a Conspiracy, which involved not only an Assault on your Majesty's sacred Life, but also had for its Object the Subversion of all civil Society within these Realms, we cannot sufficiently acknowledge our Gratitude to Divine Providence for its timely Discovery and Defeat : And we most fervently pray that the same Providence will long continue to preserve your Majesty to your faithful and affectionate Subjects, and enable your Royal House to transmit, to the latest Posterity, the
