

In recurring to the awful Alternative to which the arrogant Menaces of the Chief Consul of France forced your Majesty, much Consolation will be afforded by reflecting, that imperious Necessity impelled the Measure—that the Justice of the Cause is manifest to the World—that a magnanimous People, who feel and know the Value of what they are to contend for, with cordial and united Efforts will support your Majesty's Determination.

Deeply impressed with the Importance of Peace to this Country, and anxious as we were for its Continuance, yet we prefer the eventful Chances of open Hostilities to a fallacious Calm, portentous of some violent Convulsion.

The Feuds and Animosities which so long distracted and disgraced this Country we trust have happily subsided, and that the natural Strength which thereby wasted itself will be found concentrated in one common Cause, the Defence of all that is valuable to free Men.

In reflecting on the Moderation of your Majesty's past Conduct, contemplating the general Benignity of the Royal Mind, we feel the strongest Persuasion, that no favorable Opportunity will be lost to restore to us the Blessings of Peace, when it can be attained consistent with the Dignity and Security of the British Empire.

May your Majesty be the favored Instrument of Providence to check the devastating Progress of that Power, which hitherto, with Impunity, has trampled on the Rights of Humanity.

May your Majesty's Reign be commemorated not more for brilliant and successful Achievements in Arms, than for the solid Glory of vindicating Civil Liberty, accomplishing permanent Peace and internal Tranquillity.

Done at the Mansion-House, Cork, the Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Pelham.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town of Youghall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Youghall, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Declarations of our warmest and most unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and to assure your Majesty of the just Sense we entertain of the Wisdom and Moderation evinced by your Majesty's Councils in endeavouring to preserve the Blessings of Peace, and the Indignation we feel at finding those Attempts rendered abortive by the extravagant and insulting Pretensions advanced by the existing Government of France.

From a Conviction that every Thing dear and valuable to a free and independent Nation is involved in the present Contest, your Majesty may confidently rely upon our firm Loyalty and Zeal; and that we are determined strenuously to maintain and support with our Lives and Fortunes the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government; the Rights and Liberties of your People, and the general Interests of the United Empire.

Signed, by Order,

William Jenkins, Town-Clerk.
