

ment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to any Detachment of HIS MAJESTY's other Forces, or to any Military-Post, on or before the said 14th Day of July next, and be from thence marched to their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies.

Any Soldier who may desert from the Militia after these HIS MAJESTY's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but shall be proceeded against with the utmost Severity; as shall also all the said Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees who shall not have joined their proper Regiments, Battalions, Corps, or Independent Companies of Militia, or delivered themselves up to some other Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Independent Company of Militia, or to some Detachment of His Majesty's other Forces, or to some Military Post, by the said 14th Day of July next.

And all Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Constables, and Peace-Officers, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby enjoined and required, in pursuance of the Act just passed, "for more speedily completing the Militia of Great Britain;" to apprehend, seize, take, and detain such Defaulters, Deserters, and Absentees, for the Purpose of delivering them into safe Custody at any Military Head Quarters, or into Gaol near to the Place where they shall be apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: and all such of the said Defaulters, Deserters, or Absentees, as were enrolled as Substitutes or Volunteers in the Militia, shall, upon being identified before any General, Regimental, or Detachment Court Martial, be forthwith sent to serve in HIS MAJESTY's Regular Forces stationed Abroad, until duly discharged therefrom; and the Person or Persons who shall apprehend and detain any such Defaulter, Deserter, or Absentee from the Militia, and deliver him into safe Custody as aforesaid, shall receive the Sum of Twenty Shillings over and above the Reward of Twenty Shillings to which such Person or Persons will also be entitled under the Mutiny Act, and shall be paid the same in like Manner as is directed in Respect to the Reward last-mentioned.

By His Majesty's Command,

C. YORKE.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed by the House of Commons to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of Sir John Newport, of the City of Waterford, Baronet, complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said City, have made an Order for the Nomination and Appointment of Commissioners to examine certain Matters and Things referred to them by the said Committee:

And whereas I have this Day received a Copy of the Minutes of the Proceedings of the said Commissioners under their Hands and Seals:

Now I do hereby, and by virtue of an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the Trial of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to re-assemble and meet again
