HIS MAJESTY IS GRACIOUSLY PLEAS-ED TO DECLARE, That all the said LETTER-MEN, SERJEANTS, TRUMPETERS, and DRUMMERS shall be considered as entitled to the Pension for the Six Months, commencing from Midsummer last, notwithstanding those found fit for Service will commence Pay according to the respective Ranks which they held when discharged, from the respective Days of their Appearance, in pursuance of this Order.

HIS MAJESTY IS FURTHER PLEAS-ED TO DECLARE, That every Man found fit for Duty shall also be entitled, on his joining the Corps to which he shall be appointed, to receive a Bounty of One Pound Five Shillings, or so much thereof as shall remain after supplying him with proper Necessaries; and those who, on Examination, are found unfit for any Duty, shall be dismissed, with proportionate Subsistence to carry them back to their Homes.

AND IT IS HEREBY NOTIFIED, That all OUT PENSIONERS in SOUTH BRITAIN, discharged in the Ranks aforesaid, (EXCEPT as above EXCEPTED,) who shall not appear at the Times and Places herein appointed, will be considered as otherwise provided for by Government, or as Dead; and they will accordingly be STRUCK OFF THE BOOKS OF THE OUT PENSION OF THE SAID RESPECTIVE HOSPITALS OF CHELSEA OR KILMAINHAM, WITHOUT ANY PROSPECT OF BEING RESTORED THERETO.

Whitehall, July 9, 1803.

Whereas the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have represented to His Majesty, that, in the Evening of Saturday last, the 2d Instant, Lieutenant Fullarton and Lieutenant Palmer, of His Majesty's Ship Squirrel, having been sent on Shore from the said Ship, then lying in the River Thames, with the Boat-swain, Gunner, several Petty Officers, and a Party of Twenty-five Men, in Quest of some Seamen, of whom Captain Brown, the Commander of the said Ship, had received Information; and having landed at the Village of Barking, in the County of Essex, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening, and impressed Four Seamen for His Majesty's Service, several evil disposed Persons assembled near the said Village, attacked the said Lieutenant and their Party, and rescued the said Seamen; and that afterwards, on the Parties' Return to the River Side, in order to go on board their Ship, they were met and opposed by a very numerous Body of Haymakers and others, to the Number of Five Hundred and upwards, armed with Sabres, Pitchforks, and other offensive Weapons, by whom they were attacked and assaulted in a most violent and cruel Manner, and particularly Lieutenant Palmer received Two very severe Wounds in different Parts of his Body, and is now lying at Barking in imminent Danger of his Life;

His Majesty, for the better discovering the Offenders concerned in the abovementioned violent Outrages and Assaults, and bringing them to Justice, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of them, (except such of them as actually wounded the said Lieutenant Palmer, or any of the Party with him,) who shall apprehend, or give such Information as shall be the Means of apprehending any of his Accomplishes.

PELHAM.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person (except as aforesaid) giving such Information as shall be the Means of apprehending any of the said Offenders, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of them by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

EVAN NEPEAN.

Office of Ordnance, July 2, 1803.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that they will be ready at their Office, in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster, on or before Wednesday the 20th Instant, to receive Proposals from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Performance of Painters' Work, and the Supply of Painters' Articles for the Service of the Ordnance, at the Tower, Westminster, and Greenwich, according to the Terms and Conditions which may be seen upon Application at the Secretary's Office, where the Proposals are to be delivered, sealed up, and marked on the Outside, "Proposals for Painters' Work for the Ordnance Service." No Proposals can be received after the 20th Instant.

By Order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, July 2, 1803.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that such Persons as transmitted Proposals for furnishing the Ordnance Department with Tents and Tent-Makers' Articles, Sail-Makers' Articles and Bedding in pursuance of an Advertisement dated the 21st Ultimo, may receive their Proposals unopened, by applying for the same, at the Office of Ordnance, in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster. And Notice is hereby further given, that the Board of Ordnance will be ready on Monday the 18th Instant, to receive Tenders from such Persons as may be willing to undertake the Supply of such Articles upon separate Contracts for a Period of Three Years, conformable to Patterns and Specimens which may be inspected at the Tower, upon Application to the Chief Clerk, under the Principal Storekeeper of the Ordnance, where printed Conditions of the Contract and Schedules of the Articles to be fur-
