

Liberties which have been hitherto so well secured by our glorious Constitution.

Animated by these Sentiments, and relying upon the Justice of our Cause, we trust that, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, we shall enable your Majesty to frustrate the Attempts of all your Enemies, and to restore to this Country that unrivalled Prosperity which it has ever enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Signed on Behalf of the County,
W. C. Sherbrooke, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, and to express our Zeal to promote those Measures, which, with the Advice of your Parliament, your Majesty has adopted for the Defence of these Realms.

Great and awful as is the Crisis of the present Moment, we look forward to its Issue with cheerful Confidence, sensible, at the same Time, that it involves in it the Fate of every Thing that is most dear to us, the Maintenance of your Majesty's Throne and Dignity, the Defence of our Religion, our Laws, and Liberties; these shall never be surrendered to that implacable Enemy, who thirsts for our Destruction. The Judgment of an enlightened People can feel no Hesitation between the mild Sway of a rightful Sovereign, governing by Laws founded in the Wisdom of Parliament, and the arrogant Pretensions of an Usurper, acknowledging no Right but that of Arms, no Law, but his capricious Will.

Done at a General Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, convened by the High Sheriff, and held in the Shire-House in the Castle of Norwich, on Wednesday the Tenth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, and signed at the Request of the Meeting.

Thos. Hare, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir Jacob Henry Ashley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E!

WE, the High-Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monmouth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Assurances of our sincere and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and determined Resolution to resist, with all our Power, the menaced Attack of an insidious, vindictive, and haughty Foe for the Subversion of our constitutional Liberty, and Destruction of those social Institutions, which, contributing to our Happiness and Prosperity, render Life desirable.

Impressed with Sentiments of Veneration for your Majesty's Person, and grateful to Divine Providence for the Protection of our Freedom, enjoyed by ourselves and Ancestors for a long Series of Years, but more particularly under your Majesty's paternal Government; proud of our National Independence, and scorning Submission to an implacable and ambitious

Enemy, we cheerfully stand forward with a Tender of our Services, personal and pecuniary, to be disposed of as the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils may suggest in Support of our Country.

Geo. Jones, Sheriff.

[Presented by Charles Morgan, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, beg Leave, at this most awful Crisis, again to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of our warmest Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

From our Situation, as a maritime County, it is probable we may be amongst the first of your Majesty's Subjects who may be destined to resist the threatened Attempt of our most inveterate Enemy; and we trust that, when the Hour of Contest shall arrive, we shall not be appalled by the Danger, but be found ready and willing to make every Sacrifice that may be required of us in Defence of our King, our Country, and our Constitution in Church and State; and that, under Divine Providence, we may be able to repel the desperate Invader, and preserve to our Posterity those inestimable Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most beneficent Reign.

Signed by Desire of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, assembled at Stowmarket the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three.

H. Parker, Sheriff.

[Presented by Sir P. Charles Bunbury, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of East Lothian, in a General Meeting assembled, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Duty imposed upon us and every British Subject at this momentous Crisis, feel ourselves called upon to assure your Majesty of our ardent Love for our Country, of our earnest Desire for the Preservation of its matchless Constitution, of our unshaken Loyalty, and of our sincere Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and your mild and paternal Government.

We are threatened with Invasion by a most implacable and faithless Enemy, whose first Wish is the Destruction of the British Empire, as a Step towards universal Dominion, by an Enemy who has made some of the greatest Nations tremble before his Arms, and bow to his Dictates; by an Enemy regardless of those Laws that regulate the Connection of independent States, and whom the most solemn Treaties are too weak to bind.

Although we desire not to conceal the just Sense we entertain of the Dangers that surround your Majesty and your faithful People, yet do we disclaim and deprecate every Idea of Depression or Alarm.

The peculiar Circumstances of the Times are so fast from terrifying us, that we look forward to the Issue of this mighty Contest with Hope and Con-
