

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 24, to Tuesday September 27, 1803.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,
For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those Parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Nineteenth Day of October next, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms for the Restoration of Peace and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty: And, for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of public Worship, and to take Care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,
For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Twentieth Day of October next, that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, for the Restoration of Peace, and Prosperity to Us and Our Dominions: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn, and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty, Our Will is, therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And Our Will and Pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published, and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord
 Keib, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart dated on board His Majesty's Ship
 Monarch, off Broadstairs, the 25th Instant.

S I R,

I TRUST, for their Lordships' Information,
 a Letter which I have received from Rear-Admiral Montagu, and one which was addressed to him by Mr. Joseph Thomas, the Master of the Princess

Augusta Hired Armed Cutter, of Eight Three-Pounder Guns, and Twenty-five Men, reporting the Particulars of an Engagement between that Vessel and Two Dutch Armed Schooners, in which Lieutenant Scott, her Commanding Officer, has been killed. The Resistance made by the Princess Augusta to so superior a Force does great Credit to the gallant, but unfortunate Officer, who commanded her, as well as to the Master and her Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

*Utrecht, in the Downs,
Sept. 23, 1803.*

MY LORD,
THE Princess Augusta Hired Armed Cutter arrived at Dover this Evening; her Lieutenant, J. W. Scott, Gunner, William Lavender, and Boatwain, William Cornelius, being slain in Battle, on the 20th Instant, in Combat with Two Dutch Schooners, the one mounting Twelve Guns, and Seventy Men, the other Eight Guns and Fifty Men.

The Lieutenant, in his dying Moments, recommended the Master to fight the Cutter bravely; and to tell the Admiral he did his Duty.

These Expressions, my Lord, in the Moments of Dissolution, will endear his Memory to his Countrymen; and, whilst those more immediately connected with him sigh at the Recollection of their Loss, they will have the Consolation to reflect, that he fell gloriously in his Country's Cause, expiring with the Heroism of a British Officer.

Two Seamen, Crump and Rose, are also wounded; the former with a Ball in the Thigh, the latter with a Ball above the Ankle.

The Princess Augusta, your Lordship will recollect, is One of the smallest Cutters under your Lordship's Command, being about Seventy Tons.

The Conduct of Joseph Thomas, the Master, and the Crew of this little Vessel, fighting bravely after the Loss of their Officer, and beating off Two Vessels of such superior Force, merits more Encomium than my Pen is enabled to express.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROBERT MONTAGU.

His Majesty's Hired Cutter Princess Augusta, Joseph Thomas, Master.

SIR,
SATURDAY September 24th, Three Hours, Four Minutes, P. M. I landed at Dover, not being able to get into the Downs this Tide. After delivering Orders from Lord Keith to His Majesty's Ships cruising of Helvoetsluys, Texel, and the Entrance of the Elbe, on Tuesday the 20th Instant, at Five, P. M. Texel bearing S. W. Distance Fifteen Leagues, saw Two Schooners in the S. W. bearing down towards us, under English Colours; got all clear for Action, suspecting them to be Enemies. At Half past Six, P. M. they hauled down their English Colours, and hoisted Dutch; then, being within Hail, asked What Sloop we was? Lieutenant Scott answered, Princess Augusta; the largest, which hailed, being to Windward, gave us a Broadside, which killed our Gunner and Boatwain, and wounded Lieutenant, Scott in the Shoulder, who died the next Morning, at Forty-five Minutes past Nine, A. M. with his Wound. We then returned our Broadside at the largest, which mounted Twelve Guns, and had on board Seventy Men, who endeavoured to board us several Times to Windward, which was the Larboard Side. The smallest, which mounted Eight Guns, and had on board Fifty Men, agreeable to the Number we saw on Deck, which came up under our Lee and gave us his Broadside, then endeavoured to board us; but after an Hour's Engagement, close Quarters, with the largest one's Bowprit over our Stern, several Times, by the Assistance of the Mate and Exertion of the Crew we beat them off; but our Rigging and Hull being much damaged, and having Two Men killed and Three wounded, out of our small Number, we were not able to renew the Action.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOSEPH THOMAS.

Whitehall, September 8, 1803.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto His Excellency William Drummond, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Sublime Porte, His Royal Licence and Permission to receive and wear the Insignia of the Order of the Crescent transmitted to him by the Grand Signior.

And also to command, that this His Majesty's Commission and Declaration, together with the relative Documents, be registered in His College of Arms.

St. James's, September 21, 1803.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Conveener, Deacons, and whole incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE our Fellow-Subjects are unanimous in expressing their Sentiments of Loyalty for your Majesty's Person and Government, and of Zeal for defending our Country against a threatened Invasion, we also deem it our Duty to make known to your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Concurrence in the same Sentiments and Resolutions.

Though we must lament the Calamities and Distresses occasioned by the War in which we have been so long involved, yet we have hitherto enjoyed the good Fortune of seeing it confined to foreign Nations and other Lands, and of pursuing our peaceful Occupations in Security; but now when we are in Danger of being attacked upon our own native Shores, and every Blessing we possess becomes the Prize of Victory, it is Time for every Hand to arm, and for every Citizen to be a Soldier.

Many of our young Men have already evinced their Patriotism as Volunteers in your Majesty's Service, and, if called on, another Battalion can be instantly raised, ready and willing, with Heart and Hand, to defend our Country and our Constitution against every invading Enemy.

From these and similar Exertions, assisted by the Spirit and Gallantry of your Majesty's Navy and Regular Army, we rely with perfect Confidence, that this daring Attempt of Invasion will be defeated, or, should it be allowed by Divine Providence to take Place, it will only be permitted to ensure the complete and final Destruction of the Invaders.

May such be the happy Termination of the Contest—may it lead to the Establishment of a permanent Peace—and may we, free from domestic Factions or desolating Wars, long enjoy the Happiness of your Majesty's just and paternal Administration.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the whole incorporated Trades of the City of Aberdeen, at Aberdeen, the Tenth Day of September, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and three. John Leslie, Conveener.

[Presented by James Farquhar, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Cork, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Cork, assembled at Summer Assizes One thousand eight hundred and three, humbly beg Leave to avail ourselves of this Opportunity to reiterate our Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, and to declare to your Majesty the just Indignation with which this County has viewed the late abominable, but happily abortive, Efforts of our insidious Enemy, to animate the Embers of his expiring Interest in this County, by exciting an Insurrection in the Capital, which, although partial in its Extent, and contemptible in its Influence, has, in the Murder of the great and good Kilwarden, been marked with a Spirit of disgraceful and disgusting Ferocity.

In this Attempt we recognize the wily Artifice, the vindictive Zeal, and the restless Malignity which have uniformly characterized the Hostility of the perfidious Power we have to contend with,—who has consigned to the Machinations of Treason and of Art his Hopes of enslaving a Country that has defied both his Threats and his Arms. We venture to assure your Majesty that Treason will be confounded, and that Loyalty and Liberty will triumph.

We contemplate with Exultation the Effect which the late Insurrection has produced. The Energy of the Nation is aroused. The Apathy of Indolence is discarded; and in the mild and dignified Administration of Justice which has followed the Phrenzy of Rebellion, the signal Superiority of our venerated Constitution is happily contrasted with the wild and sanguinary System of those who would endeavour to subvert it.

For the Preservation of that Constitution, for the Maintenance of your Majesty's just Rights and those of the Empire, we confidently proclaim, there is in the Country an ample Fund of affectionate Loyalty and of enthusiastic Devotion.

We know that we contend for every Blessing and every Comfort that can render Life amiable or interesting, against the profligate Usurpation of an Individual who aims at the Destruction of all human Happiness, and we desire our Enjoyments only, as we are determined to defend them.

Rob. De Laloue, High Sheriff of the County of Cork.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Yorke.]

WHEREAS it appears by a Notice published in the Bristol Journal, bearing Date the 23d Day of August last past, that it is intended to apply to Parliament at the next Session, for Leave to bring in and obtain a Bill for making and maintaining a navigable Canal, Railway, or Tram Road from the Town of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, into the Parish of Oystermouth, in the said County, in, through, and to the Town and Franchise of Swansea, and the Parishes of Swansea, Bishopstone, and Oystermouth, in the said County of Glamorgan.
