

This Lanthorn having a Circle round it painted Red, is placed on the Northernmost Point of Agnas Pynen, at an Elevation of about Sixty Feet from the Surface of the Water, a little to the Eastward of the small Bay, where the Farm named d' Agnes is situated, and at not more than Six Hundred Ells Distance from the said Farm.

Ringfluen, the most dangerous Rock to the Eastward of Agnas Pynen, is about Two Hundred Fathoms to the E. half S. of the Light. And Graefstuen, or the Rock to the Westward of Agnas Pynen, is situated, as also the Church of Oeland to the N. and by W. of the Light, at precisely Three Hundred and Sixty Ells from it.

The Island of Garten is to the W. N. W. and the Seigniorial Land of OËsterraad to the N. N. E. of the Light.

So that Vessels coming from the Westward, and making for Drontheim, have the Island of Garten on their North, and are certain of seeing the Light-House of Agnas, and may then steer their Course for the Entrance until the Light-House is on their South by the Compass, when they are to tack towards the Light, and sail direct for Land until within Thirty Fathoms of it;—they must then keep along Shore in order to pass with Safety the Ringfluen or Rock to the Eastward, which is situated at from One Hundred and Twenty to One Hundred and Thirty Fathoms to the N. E. half E. from the North of the Point.

Vessels sailing from East to West may, when the Light-House is upon their West half South, safely tack, and pursue a straight Course.

When the Wind is contrary and Vessels are in Sight of the Light-House, (so long as the Weather will permit their sailing, and that the Fog or Snow do not prevent them from seeing the Light-House,) they may sail, on tacking to and fro, in perfect Safety till Daylight appears.

Given at the Royal Council of Customs, at Copenhagen, the 15th November 1803.

Whitehall, December 13, 1803.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that early on the Morning of Friday, the 2d Instant, a Paper of a most treasonable and inflammatory Nature was discovered to be posted upon a Door facing the public Road, leading from the Palace Green to Framwellgate Bridge in Durham, addressed to the Volunteers of that City, inciting them to lay down their Arms, and not to oppose the French Army;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Writing and Posting up the Paper abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them (except the Persons who actually wrote the said Letter), who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby promised to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, upon Application to Mr. John Wolfe, Clerk to the Magistrates of the City of Durham.

Whitehall, December 13, 1803.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Night of Friday the 2d of December Instant, a numerous Banditti, with their Faces blackened, and armed with Guns, Axes, Bars of Iron, and other offensive Weapons, assembled at the Salmon Weir at Boscarné, in the Parish of Bodmin, County of Cornwall, and after having committed divers lawless Outrages, entirely destroyed the said Weir;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Reverend Doctor Flamank, of Bodmin aforesaid.
