

Advantage; or if any other Person, who can prove the said Thomas Monk, the Son, to be either living or dead, or who can give any Information about him, will apply as above, they will be satisfied for their Trouble.—The said Thomas Monk, the Father, went Abroad as a Groom or Rough Rider to the said Lord Rivers about Sixteen Years ago, and died at Turin about Four Years ago; and the said Thomas Monk, the Son, lodged somewhere in the Neighbourhood of St. James's-Market before he enlisted for a Soldier, and went Abroad.

WHEREAS certain Estates of the Right Honorable Henry Lord Arundell are vested in the Right Honorable Charles Lord Clifford and James Everard Arundell, Esq; in Trust, in order that the same may be sold for the Payment of Creditors; and, for effectuating that Purpose, the Trustees have already sold considerable Parts thereof, and Contracts to a considerable Amount have been entered into by the said Trustees for other Parts; all Persons having Demands on Lord Arundell are requested to transmit an Account of their Demands, with the Nature and Dates of their several Securities, to Mr. Bowles, at Shaftesbury; Messrs. B. and J. W. Barrett's, Gray's-Inn; or Mr. Hodgkinson, Arundel-Street, London.

The Estates have been valued by Mr. Hodgkinson, who is actually employed in the Sale of the same, and will give further Information on the Subject.

Durham, January 2, 1804.
WHEREAS George Mowbray, late of Miln-Houses, near Stanhope, in the County of Durham, Gentleman, died on the 2d Day of March 1797, having by his Will given his Real and Personal Estates in Trust for his Brother William Mowbray for Life, with Remainder in Trust for the Children of his said Brother, and declared, that if his said Brother, or any issue of his Body, should not within Seven Years after the said Testator's Death appear and claim the said Estates, then the same should be upon other Trusts; and he appointed John Starforth, of Durham, Woollen-Manufacturer, and Gilbert Starforth, his Son, Executors, of the said Will, who have proved the same in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury: Now, therefore, the said William Mowbray and his Issue (if any,) are hereby required personally to appear and claim the said Real and Personal Estates, otherwise they will be excluded from taking any Interest therein.

WHEREAS Two Hogheads of Raw Sugar were delivered into the Warehouse of Samuel Wilson, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, (a Bankrupt,) soon after he had committed an Act of Bankruptcy, but before the Commission of Bankrupt now in Prosecution against him had been proceeded in: and whereas the Consignor of the said Sugar hath applied to the Assignee appointed by the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, and requested a Meeting of the Creditors who have proved their Debts may be called to determine, whether the said Two Hogheads of Sugar should not, under the Circumstances, be restored to the said Consignor? now, therefore, the Creditors of the said Samuel Wilson, who have proved their Debts under the said Commission, are requested to meet on Tuesday the 10th Day of January instant, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon of that Day, at the House of John Aston, known by the Name of the Red Lion Inn, in Digbeth, in Birmingham aforesaid, for the Purpose of taking the same into Consideration, and making such Order therein as they shall think proper.
