CALCUTTA GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

Fort William, Thursday, Sept. 8, 1803.

A DISPATCH, of which the following in an Extract, has been received this Day by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General from His Excellency the Commander in Chief:

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor-General, &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that I attacked M. Peron's Force this Morning, which was strongly posted with their Right extending to the Fort of Ally Ghur, and their entire Front protected by a deep Morass, which obliged me to change my original Plan of Attack, and detour considerably to the Right to turn their Left Flank, which I completely effected, dislodging a Body of Troops which were posted in a Village in the Enemy's Front.

On moving forward with the Cavalry in Two Lines, supported by the Line of Infantry and Guns, the Enemy immediately retired after a very few Shot from the Cavalry Guns, which did some Execution.

Several Attempts were made to charge some considerable Bodies of Cavalry, who made an Appearance of standing, but the Rapidity of their Retreat prevented the Possibility of effecting it so completely as I could have wished, but I have Reason to believe that, in consequence of the Operations of this Day, many of his Confederates have left him.

My Loss in Men and Horses is very inconsiderable, and no Officer.

I have the Pleasure to assure your Lordship, that the Zeal, Activity, and Steadiness displayed by both
