

Officers and Men, afforded me entire Satisfaction, and deserve my warmest Praise.

My Staff afforded me every Assistance, and I feel myself under great Obligations to them.

From every Information I can obtain, immediately upon our advancing, M. Peron, with his Body Guard, retired towards Agra, and has left Colonel Fedron in Charge of the Fort.

I am at present encamped to the Southward of the Fort, and the Town of Coel is occupied by one of my Bâtrallions.

I have the Honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most faithful
and humble Servant,

Fort William, Friday, Sept. 9, 1803.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received this Day by His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General from His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

MY LORD,

IT is with infinite Satisfaction I inform your Lordship, that the Inhabitants of this Part of the Country are coming in fast, and manifest a Wish of being protected by the British Government; and that, in consequence of my having caused it to be made known to the Head Men of the Villages in this Neighbourhood, that it is not my Intention to molest either the Persons or Properties of such of the Inhabitants as shall claim my Protection, I have the Pleasure to say, that the People who had deserted the Town of Coel, on our Approach Yesterday are returning fast to their Houses, and the Town is nearly re-peopled. Indeed they have every Reason to be satisfied, as the Instant this Position was gained, a Battalion was posted in Coel, to prevent Plunder; by which Means very little Loss was sustained by the Inhabitants.

I learn from all Quarters that most of the Enemy's Cavalry, who opposed us Yesterday, have returned to their Homes, declaring their Inability to oppose the English.

From every Account I can receive, the Number of Cavalry opposed to us amounted to Fifteen or Twenty Thousand.

The Country in our Rear is in a State of perfect Tranquillity, nor has it been molested by a single Horseman. I have sent into the Fort a Summons in English and French, which will, I trust, have the desired Effect.

I have the Honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most faithful
and humble Servant,

G. LAKE.
