To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
Governor-General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that the Battalions, who were opposed to us in the Affair of the 10th Instant, came over last Night, and are now encamped near us.

Their Number is about Two Thousand Five Hundred.

I have Reason to believe that their Compliance with my Terms was chiefly owing to the severe Loss and complete Defeat they experienced in the Affair of the 10th Instant. By their own Accounts, the Loss they sustained was upwards of Six Hundred killed.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(ENCLOSURE, No. III.)

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley,
Governor-General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that about Noon Yesterday I received Note, No. 1, addressed to the Officer commanding in the Trenches; in consequence of which I ordered all Firing to cease till Four in the Evening, and in my Answer, No. 2, desired a confidential Person might be sent to my Camp.

About Two o'Clock, Colonel Sutherland, whom they liberated from Confinement for that Purpose, arrived in my Camp with Letters, No. 3, and No. 4.

As it appeared their Wish that I should send an Officer into the Fort, I requested Captain Salkeld to accompany Colonel Sutherland thither with my Replies, No. 5, and No. 6, to explain to the Garrison the Terms on which they would be allowed to surrender.

Captain Salkeld saw all the Native Chiefs, and found that they were not decided in their Opinions on the Subject. They started several Difficulties, and whilst he was endeavouring to remove these, the Firing from the Fort recommenced, without any evident Cause, which induced him to return to Camp.

Being desirous, from Motives of Humanity, to induce them to listen to my Terms, a Messenger entrusted with a Letter from me was again sent this Morning. They have refused, however, all Inter-course, from which I am inclined to think that their only Object, Yesterday, was to gain Time.

My grand Batteries will open on the Morning of the 16th, and I have Reason to think that soon afterwards a practicable Breach will be effected.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
