

Captain Lloyd, who has already on several Occasions been mentioned as a deserving Officer, both here and at Sierra Leone, continues to merit very great Praise.

Doctor Heddle having proposed some Time back to do military Duty, I gladly accepted his Offer, and he has given me great Assistance; his Wound, which was at first thought be mortal, having taken a favourable Turn, I am now happy to think he will recover, and I earnestly wish to recommend him to your Lordship's Notice, as distinguished by his Conduct on this Occasion, and also by his Attention to his medical Duties since we came to Africa. I have the Honor to be, &c.

Right Hon. Lord Hobart, &c. &c. &c.

TRANSLATION.

Gorée, Africa, January 18, 1804.

THE French being in Possession of the Hill, the Squadron being ready to land more Troops, a considerable Number of Men being killed and wounded on both Sides, and farther Resistance offering only the Prospect of occasioning an unnecessary Effusion of Blood, the following Terms of Capitulation were agreed to:

Art. I. The Island of Gorée, with its Dependencies, shall be delivered up to the French Government as it now stands.

Art. II. The British Garrison having laid down their Arms in the North Battery, which they continue to occupy, shall be furnished without Delay with a sufficient Vessel as a Cartel, to carry them to Great Britain, Colonel Fraser giving his Parole of Honor for himself, his Officers, and Soldiers, not to serve during the present War, against the French Republic, or its Allies, until regularly exchanged.

Art. III. The Officers and Soldiers shall preserve their Baggage and Effects, which shall be embarked with them.

Art. IV. The Inhabitants shall retain Possession of their Properties, without Prejudice however to any Orders to the contrary which may hereafter be given by General Blanchot, Commandant and Administrator General of Senegal, and its Dependencies.

Agreed upon and executed in two Copies, to be exchanged between us, the Day and Year already mentioned.

(Signed) JOHN FRASER, Col Afr Corps.
MAHE, Lieut. de Vaisseau, and commanding the Division.

My Lord,

ON the 18th of January, in the Evening, the British Soldiers were embarked on board the French Squadron, until a Cartel should be made ready for them.

On the 23d, the Officers and Soldiers went on board a Sloop which was sent as a Cartel to Senegal, where a larger Vessel was preparing to carry them to England.

I am very sorry to add, that notwithstanding the Articles of Capitulation, the Inhabitants, Officers, and even Soldiers, have been shamefully pillaged.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN FRASER.
