SCHOOL OF PHYSIC IN IRELAND.

Dublin, November 6, 1804.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Fortieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for repealing former Acts relative to the Establishment of a School of Physic in Ireland, for extending and enlarging the Power of the President and Fellows of the King's and Queen's College of Physicians, and establishing a complete School of Physic in this Kingdom, it is enacted,

That every Professorship in said School shall become vacant at the End of every Seventh Year from the Date of the Election.

And whereas it is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, when any of the Professorships, called King's Professorships, in the City of Dublin, upon the Foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, shall in such wise become vacant, to direct, that such Professorship shall continue to be held for a further Term of Seven Years after the Expiration of the Term for which the Professor so directed to be continued shall have been elected.

Provided always, That the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians shall give Three Months' Notice, previous to the Time at which the Election to such Professorship would otherwise have been held, in the Dublin and London Gazettes of such their Direction.

And whereas the Period of the Tenure of the King's Professorship of the Practice of Medicine, on the Foundation of Sir Patrick Dunn, held by Whitley Stokes, M. D. is expired, the aforesaid President and Fellows of the College of Physicians, have directed, and do hereby publish and declare their Direction, that the aforesaid Whitley Stokes, M. D. shall continue to hold the Professorship of the Practice of Medicine as aforesaid for the ensuing Term of Seven Years, commencing from the Expiration of that Term for which he was elected.
