AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 23d Day of May 1805,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled "An Act for establishing and maintaining a

" permanent Additional Force for the Defence of the Realm, and to provide for augmenting His Majesty's Regular Forces, and for the gradual Reduction of the Militia of Scotland," it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That, from and after the passing of the said Act, there shall be raised in the several Counties and Stewartries in Scotland, for the Year ending on the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and five, towards supplying the Vacancies that have arisen in such Additional Force, by reason of the enlisting of any Persons enrolled therein into His Majesty's Regular Forces, a further and additional Number of One Thousand Eight Hundred Men: And it is further enacted, That His Majesty's Privy Council shall cause such Number of One Thousand Eight Hundred Men, for the supplying the Vacancies arising from the enlisting of Men as aforesaid, to be apportioned among such Counties according to the respective original Quotas of Men required at the Time of making such Apportionment to be raised in such respective Counties and Stewartries under the Act relating to the Militia; and shall, as soon after such Apportionment shall have been made as the same can be done, cause the Numbers fixed and settled by such Apportionment to be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the several Counties and Stewartries in Scotland, or their Vice Lieutenants, and shall also cause Notice thereof to be given in the Edinburgh Gazette; and such Lieutenants or Vice Lieutenants shall immediately summon General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy in their respective Counties and Stewartries; and the Deputy Lieutenants at such Meetings shall divide and apportion the Numbers so fixed and settled among the Subdivisions, Parishes, Cities, or Places in their respective Counties and Stewartries, according to the Provisions of any Act relating to the Militia, in order that such Men may, as speedily as possible, be raised for the Additional Force under the Provisions of this Act, His Majesty's Privy Council, in pursuance of the said Directions contained in the said Act, are thereupon pleased to apportion and divide, and do hereby apportion and divide, over the several Counties and Stewartries in Scotland, the Number of Men to serve for such Counties respectively, according to the several Numbers specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and amounting, in the Whole, to One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-two Men, and which Schedule His Majesty's Privy Council are pleased to direct shall be taken as Part of this Order; and they do hereby direct that this Order, and the Schedule thereunto annexed, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the several Counties and Stewartries in Scotland, or their Vice Lieutenants, in order that they should proceed upon the same, in pursuance of the Directions of the said Act of Parliament.
