

Day of January, 1806, and thereafter each Night, from the Expiration of Day-light in the Evening, until Day-light in the Morning.

By the Compass, North Ronaldsay Light House bears from the Start Point, N. N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. Distant Eight Miles, and the Lamb Head of Stronfey S. W. distant Fifteen Miles.

The Light will be from Oil, with Reflectors, visible from every Point of the Compass, and elevated above the Level of the Sea at high Water of Spring Tides, One Hundred Feet, of which Height the Building forms Ninety Feet; and that this Light may be distinguished from all others on the Coast, the Reflectors are made to revolve once in every Two Minutes, exhibiting Light One Minute, and disappearing the next, an effect fully sufficient for the Purpose, as the Light increases from Darkness to full Strength during one Minute, and, during the next, declines in Strength to total Darkness.

By Order of the Commissioners for erecting Light-Houses on the Northern Parts of Great Britain,
C. Cuninghame, Conj. Clerk.

Whitehall, November 16, 1805.

*W*hereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Saturday the 6th, or early on the Morning of Sunday the 7th October last, the Dwelling-House of Miss Mary and Miss Frances Bale, situate near the Town of Fakenham, in the County of Norfolk, was burglariously broken and entered, as it is supposed by Two Men, who, without speaking, proceeded instantly to strike and beat the Ladies, (who were the only Persons in the House,) until one of them was rendered insensible by a violent Blow on her Head, and the other in endeavouring to make her Escape, was pursued to the lower Part of the House where an Attempt was made to cut her Throat with a small Knife, and after receiving several Blows on the Head, she was left insensible;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such barbarous Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who made the Attempt with the Knife) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Edward Bale, of Toftrees, near Fakenham, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Persons who actually entered the House,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 16, 1805.

*W*hereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that about Twelve o'Clock at Noon, on Saturday the 9th Instant, a Barn called Rome Barn, situate in the Parish of Capel, in the County of Surrey, the Property of James Broadwood, Esq; was discovered to be on Fire, by which the same, with its Contents, were totally destroyed, and that there is every Reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Barn,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said James Broadwood, Esq; to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Navy-Office, November 15, 1805.

*T*HE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday the 28th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for Building a Storehouse in His Majesty's Naval Yard at Deal.

A Form of the Tender, with a Draught of the Contract, and a Drawing of the Building, may be seen at this Office.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock on the Day of Treaty, nor any noticed, unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
