an Instance of His Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant His Free Pardon to all Deserters from His Regular Land Forces who shall surrender themselves, on or before the Eighth Day of December next, to any of His Majesty's Civil Magistrates, to the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector-General of the Recruiting Service in the Isle of Wight.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men, and fit for Service, shall be appointed to such Regiment as His Majesty may be pleased to command, and, when so placed, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

Every Deserter not actually serving in any of His Majesty's Regiments is to surrender himself for General Service.

Deserters serving in other Corps, (Militia, and Army of Reserve excepted,) are to continue therein upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers, who are to report the Circumstance to the Secretary at War and the Adjutant-General, and they shall not be liable at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: but this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps for raising Recruits for general Service, which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon, on declaring themselves to be such, and will be transferred to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command.

The Magistrate to whom any Deserter from His Majesty's Regular Forces may surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the Day on which such Deserter surrendered himself, which Certificate is to continue in force until the Arrival of the Deserter at the Head-Quarters of the nearest Military Post, provided he proceed at the Rate of Ten Miles a Day, unless prevented by Sickness, to be certified by some Medical Practitioner on the Back of the Magistrate's Certificate, or to be otherwise proved to the Satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such Military Post.

No Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity. Nor shall any Soldier who surrendered himself upon any former Proclamation of His Majesty's Pardon, and who afterwards again deserted, be included in the above Pardon. And it is to be clearly understood, that this Pardon is not to extend to any Deserter from His Majesty's Militia Forces, or from the Army of Reserve, or Additional Force; but all Soldiers who shall have enlisted for general Service from the said Forces, and shall subsequently thereto have deserted, will be included in this His Majesty's gracious Pardon.

By His Majesty's Command,
W. DUNDAS.

IN pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts made in the Tenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other Provisions for the like Purposes," I do hereby give Notice, that the Death of the Right Honorable John Beresford, late Member serving in this present Parliament for the County of Waterford, in Ireland, hath been certified to me, in Writing, under the Hands of Two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Knight of the Shire, to serve in this present Parliament for the said County of Waterford, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Insertion of this Notice in the Gazette.

Dated the 28th Day of November 1805.

CHARLES ABBOT, Speaker.

Whitehall, November 30, 1805.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that early in the Morning of the 24th Instant, William Baker, late Game-Keeper to the Right Honorable Lord Selley, was shot dead in his Lordship's Woods, called Bridgers Ditches, in the Parish of West Dean, in the County of Sussex, by some evil-minded Person in Company with others;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such an atrocious Act, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them (except the Person who actually shot the deceased,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HAWKESBURY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by Lord Selley, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person who actually shot the Deceased,) to be paid on Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.
