THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkebury, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been, by his Lordship, presented to the King, which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Dublin, beg Leave to approach the Throne of our most gracious Sovereign with our sincere Congratulations on the late splendid and glorious Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets over the Combined Forces of France and Spain, on the 21st of October last; and on the 4th of November instant; and though we are, in common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, affected with the deepest Regret for the irreparable Loss of the ever to be lamented Lord Viscount Nelson, whose godlike Spirit and dauntless Fortitude enabled him to exceed all that he had himself before achieved: yet we cannot but join in the Effusions of Praise so justly due to those illustrious Heroes, whose united Energies contributed to obtain Victories the most brilliant that ever graced our Naval Annals, and which have almost annihilated a Fleet which surpassed your Majesty's in Number, and was led on by the most able and zealous Commanders of your Enemies; we cannot, therefore, but proudly exult at Victories, such as former Ages had never seen, and which have produced Events at once glorious to your Majesty's Arms, and destructive to the Hopes of your Enemies: Crushing the united Powers of those potent and implacable Foes, who dared to cope with the British Flag, and to dispute with your Majesty the Empire of the Seas: We most humbly hope that the God of Battles, who still continues to extend his Divine Favour to your Majesty and your Kingdoms, will enable you finally to compel the most dangerous and exorbitant Power, which ever threatened the Liberties of Europe, to sue for a fair, permanent, and honorable Peace.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, the Eighteenth Day of November, in the Forty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County-Palatine of Chester, beg Leave, with all Humility, to declare our unbounded Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our united and fervent Congratulations on the signal Victories lately obtained, by your Majesty's Fleets, over the Combined Naval Force of France and Spain.

In common with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, we do most feelingly lament that Triumphs so brilliant and so unprecedented in the Naval Annals, even of Great Britain, have not been purchased without the Loss of that gallant Hero, who so nobly fell in Defence of his Country, and in the Arms of Victory; nor without the Sacrifice of so many valuable Men, by whose intrepid and irresistible Exertions the Honor and Security of the British Empire has been so seasonably strengthened.

We have however, notwithstanding these severe Deprivations, every Reason to be confident, that the remaining Guardians of our Naval Pre-eminence will continue to emulate these glorious Examples; and that a similar Spirit will prevail for Ages yet to come, so that Britons may always exercise their Dominion over the Ocean with that Moderation and Justice by which they have ever been distinguished.

By the Order, and in the Name of the Meeting,
George John Legh, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by George John Legh, Esq; High-Sheriff for the said County of Chester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, and Parts adjacent, in Town-Hall assembled, the 19th of November, 1805.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, and Parts adjacent, humbly beg to offer to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations on the brilliant Success with which it has pleased Divine Providence to favour your Majesty's Arms in the glorious and important Victory obtained over the Combined Fleets of France
