Given at Our Court at the Queen's Palace, this Twentieth Day of January, One thousand eight hundred and six, and in the Forty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of January 1806,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and three, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman fit for His Majesty's Service should be paid, in the Manner thereby directed, to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should on or before the Thirtieth Day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains, or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased by his said Proclamation to declare, that all able bodied Landmen not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every able and ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him, or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamation for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath, by Order in Council, been prolonged and extended to the Thirty first Day of December last. And whereas His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Seventh Day of November last, to promise and declare that all able bodied Landmen so entering themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, on or before the said Thirty first of December last should be entitled to receive the said Bounty of Thirty Shillings each Man, upon Proof being exhibited that such able-bodied Landmen were not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years; and that a Reward of Three Pounds for every able Seaman and Fifty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships should be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Sixth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and five, to any Person who should discover such Seaman or Seamen respectively, who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen might be taken for His Majesty's Service by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December last: And whereas by the said above-recited Proclamation, bearing Date the Seventh Day of November last, His Majesty was further pleased to promise and declare, that a Reward of Four Guineas for every able Seaman, Three Guineas for every ordinary Seaman, and Two Guineas and a Half for every Landman should be paid to any Person or Persons who might, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December last, inclusive, procure the voluntary Service of, and convey such able Seaman or Landman fit for His Majesty's Service, on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or to any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men, together with an Allowance at the Rate of One Penny per Mile for each able Seaman, ordinary Seaman, and Landman, for every Mile they might respectively travel to the nearest of His Majesty's Ships of War, or nearest Place of Residence of any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men, (provided such Man should be fit for His Majesty's Service, and there should not be Reason to suppose, that he was an Apprentice,) the said Rewards and travelling Allowance, to be paid in the Manner directed by the said Proclamation: And whereas the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties, Rewards and travelling Allowance, has expired; and it is expedient that the Payment thereof since the Thirty-first of December last should be confirmed and approved, and that such Payment should be still further continued for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Payment of the said Bounties, Rewards and travelling Allowance made since the Thirty-first Day of December last, be confirmed; and approved; and that the like Payment be further made and continued from the Date hereof until the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive, whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly. W. Fawkener.
