St. James's, March 7, 1806.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Earl Spencer, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been, by his Lordship presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, humbly tender the renewed Expressions of our Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, and Attachment to your august Family.

We beg to assure your Majesty, that while we compare our Situation, as Citizens of a free State, with that of those who have been trampled upon by the destructive Force of an invading Enemy, or who are subject to the Iron Rod of Military Despotism, we cannot but partake with every Briton in the firm and ardent Resolution to support the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and to maintain the Liberties and Independence of our Country.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we intreat Permission to approach the Throne with our warmest Acknowledgments for the recent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard in the Appointment of an Administration combining Men of the highest and most distinguished Abilities, and to express our Confidence that by such an Union of Talents and Energy in your Majesty's Councils our national Securities will be strengthened and preserved either in a vigorous Resistance to the Enemy, or in terminating the present Contest by a safe and honorable Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the 5th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1806.

[Transmitted by the Honorable H. Walpole and Sir Martin Brown Folkes, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough of King's Lynn.]
