

our own Part, and that of our numerous Brethren in this County, to approach your Throne, and with Feelings of the most fervent Loyalty to express our steady and invariable Attachment to your Majesty's Government, your most sacred Person and Family.

We beg Leave to present to your Majesty the dutiful Expression of our lively Gratitude and heartfelt Congratulation on beholding your Majesty call to your Councils an Administration in whose Talents, Integrity, and well known Liberality we fondly anticipate the Return of Harmony, Happiness, and Tranquillity, and in whose wise and conciliatory Measures we likewise anticipate the Union of the People, the Strength of the Nation, and the Stability of the Constitution.

We cannot at this awful and momentous Crisis of public Affairs, refrain from most humbly expressing our respectful, but strong and earnest Hope that your Majesty's present Ministers, will, in their Wisdom and Liberality, and under your Majesty's most gracious Directions, pursue that System which must inevitably tend to extinguish all Motives to Division, annihilate the Principle of Religious Animosity, and animate all Descriptions of your Majesty's Subjects in an enthusiastic Defence of our invaluable Constitution against the Attempts of the most formidable Enemy the British Empire had ever yet to encounter.

Permit us also to assure your Majesty of our firm and unalterable Determination at all Times, and in every Event, to exert our best Energies in defence of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and of the Liberties and Safety of those Realms, so as to place, beyond the Possibility of Danger, the Honor and Dignity of your Majesty's Throne, and the Security and Liberties of your Majesty's People.

James Barrett, Chairman.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]
